You may never meet her. But you have talked to her, heard that friendly "voice with a smile".

She is always there, at your service, like the telephone itself, ready to save you time and trouble. If you ever need help in an emergency, you know she will meet that challenge, too.

Like all Bell people, she brings to her work an understanding of how important the telephone has become in our daily lives.

MEMORIALS

CAIN — In loving memory of Robert Cain, who was killed December 6th, 1950. He bade no one a last farewell. He said goodbye to none. The heavenly gates were open wide a loving voice said "Come". We often sit and think of you. The things you used to say and do. We wonder why you had to die. Without a chance to say goodbye. — Sadly missed and ever remembered by his loving wife Mable.

CAIN — In loving memory of our dear father who was killed Dec 6th, 1950. Gone, dear father, gone forever. How we miss your smiling face. But you left us to remember. None on earth can take your place. A happy home we once enjoyed. How sweet the memory still. But death has left a loneliness. The world can never fill. — Ever remembered and sadly missed by his loving son and daughters.

DREDGE — In loving memory of a dear father, William Dredge, who died on December 4th, 1951. — Always remembered by Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Tindale and grandchildren.

CARDS OF THANKS

GIVEN — I wish to thank friends for kindness shown and for flowers and cards sent at the time of the death of Mr. John Given — Miss Janie Given.

LEGION W.A. — The Ladies Auxiliary, Canadian Legion, wish to express their sincere thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Joe McClintock for showing the doll for the draw in their window and for their assistance in making the draw a real success.

LAWS — Mrs. Fred Laws wishes to thank friends who remembered her while she was a patient in Wellealey Hospital, Toronto.

LINDSAY — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lindsay wish to thank Georgetown Fire Brigade for answering a call when a chimney fire threatened to cause damage to their home on Monday.

McDOWELL — I wish to extend my heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the many acts of kindness, beautiful floral tributes and messages of sympathy from friends and neighbours during my recent bereavement in the loss of my dear wife Hazel — W. G. McDowell.

SHIPWAY — I wish to thank all my friends and neighbours for beautiful flowers and cards, baskets of fruit and other gifts sent to me while I was a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital, Toronto, while convalescing at my mother's and since my return home. A special thanks to fellow employees at Smith & Stone, Henry Davis Wood Products and Mrs. Joan Hutchinson — Jean Shipway.

Surprise Party For Lady's 75th Birthday

Mrs. William Allen had a pleasant surprise Sunday when a number of well-wishers gathered at Mrs. L. J. Norton's home to honour Mrs. Allen on her 75th birthday. She received many gifts, along with three large birthday cakes.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Elizabeth Glass and son Harry, of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Beerman, Virden, Manitoba, and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Weston, Erin. Mrs. Norton's family from Georgetown and the Glen were all present.

Mrs. Allen was a Glen Williams resident until her husband's death. For eight years she has made her home in London with her sister, Mrs. W. Denamore and Mrs. Deunmore. She has been visiting with Mrs. Norton for the past three months.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Beerman of Virden, Manitoba, have been visiting with his sister, Mrs. L. J. Norton and other relatives. They are leaving this week for Florida and from there will travel to the coast to spend the rest of the winter with their son Bruce in Vancouver.

COMMUTERS LOSE FIRST DROP TO THIRD PLACE

Georgetown Commuters in the Avro hockey league slipped from first to third place on Sunday when they lost a close game to Biltmores in Brampton Arena.

Biltmores and Canucks, who also won their game that afternoon, are now tied for first place, one point ahead of Commuters.

Zeke McCandless scored Georgetown's only goal in the 2-1 game. In a recent lucky draw held by the team to purchase sweaters, the prize ticket belonged to Wayne Dunlop of Scott Motors staff.
