Turkey Dinner, Whist For Knox Y.L.A. Party

Twenty-five member of the Young Ladies Auxiliary of Knox Presbyterian Church attended a Christmas party on Wednesday at the McGibbon House.

Following turkey dinner in the dining room, the group adjourned to the party room upstairs for a gift exchange and an evening of court whist. A guest at the dinner was Miss Pat Donaldson of New Zealand who is making an extended stay with her sister, Mrs. James Linton. Miss Donaldson told the ladies about her trip to England where she spent some time before coming to Canada.

MACKENZIE NEWS

Why not spend your Christmas bonus on something that will last the rest of the year?

A combination storm and screen door, with hinges and lock would cost $20.55. Insulation for a house 24x30 would cost $31.20. A good way to spend Boxing Day and the day after would be to coat your cellar walls with Coprox as a sealer against dampness. Coprox costs $3.95 per gallon. See you surrounded by parcels.

Georgetowners Attend Army Christmas Party

Several members from town and their friends attended the Christmas party for officers of the Lorne Scots Regiment in the officers' mess at Brampton Armouries on Friday. Scottish dances were enjoyed, with a trio of pipers from the regimental pipe band playing, and later there was bingo and a buffet supper served. Door prize, a turkey, was won by a Georgetown man, Norris Wilson.

Among those present from town were Lt.-Col. and Mrs. John R. Barber, Major and Mrs. Paul Barber, H/Cpt. and Mrs. Alex Calder, Lt. and Mrs. Bob Hoare, Lt. and Mrs. Bob Stewardson, Lt. and Mrs. Dick Crichton, Mr. S. W. Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blehn, Mr. and Mrs. Norris Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Young.

MRS. TAYLOR ELECTED EAST YORK DEPUTY

Mrs. Walter Taylor, frequently a visitor with Miss Dorothy Stone at her home on the Check Line was again successful in the East York elections on Saturday. Stepping up after serving two terms as a councillor, Mrs. Taylor was elected deputy reeve by a substantial majority.
