Mission Society Chooses Officers for Next Year

The WMS met for their December meeting at the manse. Mrs. Warne led in a lovely Christmas worship service interspersed with carols. The annual report was discussed, each secretary giving a general report of her department. The following officers for 1953 were given by the nominating committee:

President — Mrs. F. W. Shortill
1st Vice Pres. — Mrs. Wm. Gibb
Treasurer — Mrs. R. Warne
Community Friendship — Mrs. McKay
Assistant — Mrs. H. Hills
Correspond. Sec'y — Miss Hills
Supply Sec'y — Miss B. Hills
Assoc. Members — Mrs. J. Kirkwood
Baby Band Sup't. — Mrs. N. Sinclair

Mission Band — Mrs. Jamieson and Mrs. J. McEnery
Organist — Mrs. Kirkwood

Mrs. F. J. Shortill gave a very timely reading entitled "God's Finger on Man's Shoulder" stressing the thought of peace. Peace is the essence of Christmas. At Jesus' birth angels sang "Peace on Earth." After His death and resurrection He appeared and spoke words of peace and comfort to the disciples. At this Christmas time let us begin the role of peacemaker in our homes, our community and our church, making a special effort to be friendly to those who seem to resent us by going the second mile to do them a kindness. Let us all try during the coming year to share God's peace with the kind word spoken and helpful acts of kindness to those we meet. Lunch was served and a social time enjoyed.

Blue Mountain School held quite a successful concert Friday night in the hall, under the direction of the teacher, Mrs. R. Shortill.

Mr. Bert Davidson, a member of the school area board was present and very capably fulfilled the duties of chairman. A full program of carols, two part songs, plays, recitations and drills was much enjoyed. Miss Lillian Shortill accompanied the children in their singing. There has been much illness among the children but mostly all were able to put in an appearance on the platform. Dancing was enjoyed for a short time at the close of the program.

A Christmas Candlelight service was held in the church Sunday evening. Mrs. N. Sinclair led in the service in the absence of Mrs. Baker who was ill. The theme was

"Christmas, the Season of Birth — and Rebirth." The story of "How the Littlest Camel Came to Kneel" was shown in lovely pictures by Mr. Gibb. The attendance was small due to the very misty weather but those present enjoyed the spirit of the service.
