Two Motorcyclists Who Lost Legs Back Home

Don Beckford and Bob Jones, two of three Yellow Jacket Motorcycle Club members injured in three different accidents last fall, are back home in Brampton — and in good spirits, despite amputations. Don lost his right leg below the knee, Bob lost his left leg below the knee. This week they joked together, wishing they both wore the same size shoes.

Don was the first one injured. The second was "Iah" Hill of Georgetown, who died in Peel Memorial Hospital last week. Third was Bob Jones, whose motorcycle was in collision with a car near the A. V. Roe gates at Malton on September 16th. Bob, who lives at 153 Elizabeth St. S., was a railroad section hand. He must now look for other employment.

Don Beckford of 1 Pease Avenue, was seriously injured when his motorcycle collided head on with a car on Dundas Highway near the Six Points August 21st. Once active in local lacrosse and baseball circles, and basketball, Don had his right leg amputated below the knee, and was the subject of considerable sympathy and well-wishing as he courageously convalesced at St. Joseph's Hospital.

The popularity of the once active 20-year-old athlete was reflected by the wide response to an appeal for blood transfusions necessitated by the amputation. His recovery was regarded as miraculous — doctors state — in view of the fact that he had multiple fractures of the right arm and miscellaneous injuries throughout the body.

Employed as a riveter at A. V. Roe, Malton, Don is hoping to return to AVRO as soon as his condition permits, in whatever capacity the company can find for him.

Pottery Girls Exchange Gifts, Christmas Party

Girls from the Pottery Department of Smith & Stone, Ltd. had a Christmas party a week ago Friday in the Oddfellows Hall.

There was a gift exchange, carol singing and dancing during the evening and Jack Wareing entertained at the piano. Guests at the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Spence, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. Wareing. The tables were arranged in a square around a decorated Christmas tree and the decorations were most attractive, and the turkey dinner, served by the Hebekeha, a real triumph.

Mrs. Harvey Lusty and Mrs. Alf Collins were in charge of arrangements for the party.

Those present included: Mrs. Charles Boyle, Mrs. S. Ellington, Mrs. E. Shier, Mrs. Harvey Lusty, Mrs. Charles Day, Mrs. Albert Norton, Mrs. Elmer Hill, Mrs. Harry Dewhurst, Mrs. K. Bouwman, Mrs. Jim Peardon, Mrs. Jack King, Mrs. George Beckett, Mrs. James Doherty, Mrs. Jim Cummins, Mrs. Wellington Willett, Mrs. Alice Polts, Mrs. John Koloski, Mrs. Arthur R. Wilson, Mrs. Bob Ezard, Mrs. Albert Stapleton, Mrs. A. C. McBride, Mrs. Albert Williams, Mrs. Cliff Norton, Mrs. Ken Harris, Mrs. Jack Harrison, Mrs. James Roe, Mrs. Henry Shepherd, Mrs. James Stewart, Mrs. Thomas Beckett, Mrs. William Hillier, Jr., Mrs. Arthur Sheppard, Mrs. James Seddon, Mrs. Jack Davidson, Mrs. Everett Wilson, Mrs. William Wylie, Mrs. Alf Collins, and Misses Margaret McQueen, Jean Bruce, Kay Cox, and Isabel Emalle.

The smallest bird sanctuary in Canada on privately owned land is the one-acre Rideau Island Bird Sanctuary in the city of Calgary; the largest is eight square miles of forest, lake and cultivated land near Ottawa.
