Annual Young People's Party at Schoolhouse

Well! Christmas Day has come and gone again for another year. We didn't have a white Christmas but the roads were good for travelling and the day was perfect for relatives and friends to celebrate together.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Blake and family of Goderich, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blake and family and Mr. W. Blake of Woodbridge were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson and Marilyn.

Miss Joyce McCullough of Hamilton and Mrs. Stanley Gowland of Georgetown were holiday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wilson and family.

The annual Young Peoples' party was held in the school house on Friday evening, December 28th. Euchre was played, winners being Margaret Milton and Gordon Ferguson. Dancing was enjoyed to music supplied by Archie Fuller's orchestra of Norval. The committee responsible for success of the evening was Gordon Wingfield, Fraser McNabb, Isabel Currie and Bernice Wilson. Committee for 1953 is Jean Bird, Billie Wilson, Barbara Cunningham, and John Currie.

A happy New Year to all our readers and May health and prosperity be in everything you do and see. Is what we wish for all of you in 1953.

City Heart Attack Fatal for Relative

A brother-in-law of William T. Sinclair, Georgetown, Jack Lang, 64, Orangeville businessman succumbed to a heart attack in Toronto last week.

Mr. Lang had accompanied a friend to the city and in mid-afternoon as they were pulling out of a parking lot, Mr. Lang suffered a severe heart seizure. He was rushed to hospital but was pronounced dead on arrival.

Mr. Lang was born in Amaranth Township, one of a family of eight children of John and Katherine Lang. In 1912 he married Margaret Sinclair and they farmed near Campana for seven years, moving in 1920 to a farm just outside Grand Valley. In 1928 they moved to Orangeville where Mr. Lang purchased a butcher shop which he operated until January of this year.

Prominent in civic affairs, he was deputy-reeve in 1938, a steward and member of the board of Westminster United Church, and a member of Harris Masonic Lodge and Ionic Chapter RAM.

He leaves his wife, and two sisters, Mrs. Ed Sproule, Orangeville, and Mrs. R. W. Hinton, Toronto.

Rev. R. K. Arkwright conducted the funeral service on December 21 and interment took place in Grand Valley Cemetery. Pallbearers were six nephews, Campbell Sinclair, Georgetown, Lloyd and Walter Hinton, Toronto, Willard and John Lang, Barrie, and Harry Sproule, Chatham.

Miss Muriel Thompson was a visitor on Christmas day in Acton with her sister, Mrs. Roy Arnold.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stevens, Rochester, N.Y., were holiday guests with Mr. and Mrs. A. G. M. Bruyna.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Hurst and son David were here from Kitchener for Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Scott, Hamilton, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Shurgin, Toronto, joined Mr. and Mrs. Ross Duncan and family for Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harris and daughter Anne spent Christmas day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Agnew near Milton.

Holiday guests with Rev. and Mrs. Alex Calder were her mother, Mrs. W. R. B. McKay, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Hall, Toronto.

Mrs. V. T. Cavanagh, Mrs. J. Fasken and Mrs. C. Cavanagh spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cavanagh, New Hamburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Cavanagh, Kitchener.

Holiday guests with Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Faram were Miss Barbara Faram, and Mr. James McClelland, Toronto and Mr. William Faram, Kitchener.

Mr. and Mrs. Armand Swackhamer and son Jimmy were here for the holiday week-end from Essex, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Swackhamer and her sister, Miss Hilda Erwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hills, Ronald and Noreen, spent the Christmas holiday in Leamington with her mother, Mrs. R. W. Swanton, and with his mother, Mrs. W. L. Hills in Hlligate.

The day after Christmas, Mr. and Mrs. Ern Thompson entertained at a family dinner at their Guelph Street home. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Chris Graham, Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Graham, Norval and Mrs. A. E. Farnell.

Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Beaumont were in Guelph for Christmas with her mother, Mrs. McKay. They will be spending New Year's day in Brantford visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Doug Egan and family. Mr. Egan, who lived in town while employed with the Dayfoot Shoe Company was transferred from North Bay last fall and now works in the Niagara Peninsula for the B. F. Goodrich Company.

Holiday guests with Mr. and Mrs. William Fleming were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fleming, Caledon, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pilkey, Waterford, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cottrill, Karen and Greg of Kincardine.

A family group for Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McGowan included Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Harvey and two sons and Mrs. F. R. Harvey and family of Kitchener, and Mr. and Mrs. F. Buschlen and daughter Barbara of Toronto.

All the family were home for Christmas with Mrs. Edward Hill and Ross, Guelph Street. The party included Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Keith and Bobby, Seaforth, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ward and family, Stouffville, Mr. Kenneth Ham, Stouffville, Miss Lois Young, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Toat and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cunningham and their families.

The Saxe family gathered in Toronto on Christmas day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Fleishman. The party included Mr. M. Saxe, Mrs. David Saxe and children, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Saxe and children and Miss Ethel Bridger from town and Mr. and Mrs. M. Pichman, New York City. The day was a particularly happy one for Mr. Saxe who only a few days before became a great-grandfather. The new member of the family is Paula Jill Stitt, whose mother Mrs. Murray Stitt of Fort William is the former Linda Ginsburg.

BILL BOAL NOW AT MONTREAL THEATRE

Manager of the Roxy Theatre here until his transfer to Dundas last spring, Bill Boal is now assistant-manager of the Seville Theatre, in Montreal.

Mr. Boal was in town last week as a guest of Rev. and Mrs. Alex Calder. He has been in Montreal since October at the Seville which is a vaudeville house which features many of the star acts which play at the Casino in Toronto.

CAM McENERYS MARK 35th ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Cam McEnery entertained relatives and friends at their home Saturday evening, the occasion being their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary. Progressive euchre was enjoyed during the evening after which dainty refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. McEnery received flowers and several other lovely gifts. We all join in wishing them many happy anniversaries.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gibb, Bruce and David spent Christmas with Mrs. Gibb's parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Brierly at Appleby.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Cotton and family were Christmas guests with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Crapps at Stayner.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Sinclair, Wilma, Ross and Laurie of Milton were Christmas visitors at the Kirkwoods.

Miss Emma Cole of Acton spent Christmas Day with Mr. and Mrs. Alex McKay.

The Young Peoples' group held a social evening Friday evening at the home of Evelyn Saunders. It had been planned to have a sleigh riding party but due to the lack of snow the young folk made good use of a neighbour's truck. Games and contests were enjoyed by all and a bountiful buffet supper was served by the hostess to close a very enjoyable evening.
