HELP WANTED
YOUNG MAN WANTED for clerical work, some bookkeeping. Write Box 11, Herald.

DO YOU WANT?
To earn from 8 to 10 thousand per year?

TO ESTABLISH YOUR OWN BUSINESS?
In Georgetown or surrounding districts.

Men already in this business have become financially independent in a few years, many started on part time bases.

WE WANT
Alert hardworking men and women; Insurance or specialty selling helpful but not essential. Age over thirty, car necessary.

From the men we select we will pick our group managers and show them how to organize and train their own sales force, as men in other districts have done, and comparatively new men earn from six to eight hundred per month.

Earnings start at once, no canvassing, dignified work, an opportunity of a life time to financial security for years to come.

Representing a proven product in use and recommended by thousands of Canadian Homes.

Virginia Chapman was a guest for a few days last week with Miss Joan Bishop. Since leaving town, Miss Chapman enrolled in the nursing course at St. Joseph's Hospital, Toronto, and will be graduating this spring.

Miss Jean MacKenzie, with Miss Joy Goodridge of Winnipeg had a pleasant holiday trip to New York City last week. The ladies attended the Metropolitan Opera and a couple of Broadway shows including the new Bette Davis revue "Two's Company" and Helen Hayes' play "Mrs. McThing."

New Year's visitors with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Main Street, were Mr. and Mrs. Bud McClelland, Bruce and Margaret of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Smith and children of Kingston.

Mr. Claude Kentner and Mr. Walter Gray left Sunday on a motor trip to Florida where they will spend the next few weeks. Last Monday at Fairview Inn, Mr. Gray entertained a number of his friends and business associates at Flowertown Motors, Brampton, before his trip. Vince Mountford and Willis McNeilly of Brampton entertained during dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McClure and George were in Unionville, Connecticut last week where they attended the wedding of Mrs. McClure's niece, Beverly Guenther, who married David L. Jones in First Congregational Church there. Miss Guenther visited the McClures here last summer. They also spent a day at Richmond Hill, Long Island with former Georgetowners, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Goring. Mr. Goring, now associated with the Sterling National Bank in New York City was accountant in the Bank of Montreal branch here twelve years ago. Their son Robert is now an engineering student at Columbia University.
