TERRA COTTA

PRIZES ARE WON AT WALLPAPER SHOWING

Miss Betty Blight gave a demonstration on interior decorating with wallpapers to ladies of Terra Cotta Women's Institute at their meeting on January 8th at the home of Mrs. T. F. Macdonald, Brampton.

Her demonstration showed the actual wallpapers, with curtain materials to match, then coloured slides of rooms decorated with them. A lucky draw was conducted and Mrs. Fraser Macdonald and Mrs. Jack McDonald each won enough paper for a room.

President Mrs. Eric Leslie was in the chair. Roll call was answered by "What I like most about this month." It was decided to send a donation to the Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Toronto. The February meeting will take the form of a family night on the regular date at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Crichton.

The motto — the average man's idea of interior decoration is a square meal — was capably taken by Mrs. Clarence Lyons. Her paper was humorous and heartily enjoyed by all.

The speaker and hostess were thanked by Mrs. Peter Dick. Lunch was served by the hostess and her assistants.

Georgetown Curlers At Midland Bonselpiel

Two Georgetown rinks were in Midland last week for a bonselpiel in which forty competed.

No prize money was brought home but the men report an exceedingly good time and speak well of the welcome extended by the Midland people. Rev. J. L. Self, a former Norval minister, entertained one group to dinner at his home and is bringing a rink to a local bonselpiel next Thursday.

Those who were in Midland included a rink skipped by Fred Chapman, composed of Vern Archer, Horace Barnes and Murt Allison, and Perc Cleave's group, Jack Williamson, Elwood Carney and Neil Robinson. The latter advanced to the semi-finals.

The Georgetown Club, under Jack Williamson's leadership, have a 20-rink bonselpiel planned here on the 29th and all entries are filled. Visitors will be here from Barrie, Alliston, Brantford, Midland and Bradford. There is talk of a mixed bonselpiel later in the year.

BALLINAFAD

SUNDAY SCHOOL HAS ANNUAL MEETING

The Women's Association met for their January meeting at the home of Mrs. R. McEnery. The president Mrs. Lloyd Marshall was in the chair and read the Scripture Lesson from the first chapter of John. The creed was read in unison followed by the theme song. After the business period a "Weights and Measures" contest was conducted by Mrs. F. Smith who also gave a reading entitled "Keep the Christmas Spirit all year". Mrs. Starret read one of Edna Jacques poems "Just be Yourself." Lunch was served by the committee and a social time enjoyed.

The annual meeting of the Sunday School was held at the manse. The treasurer's report showed a substantial balance with twenty-five dollars being raised for the M&M Fund. It was decided to have a special missionary Sunday once a quarter with lantern slides or talks. Plans were discussed to form a junior choir. Officers and teachers for 1953 are as follows:

Superintendent: Mr. R. Warne; Pianist, Janice Baker; Sec.-Treas., R. Warne; Assist. Sec.-Treas., Mary Jennings; Librarian, Muriel Hiltz; Temperance Sec'y., Mrs. J. Kirkwood; Missionary Secretary.

Teachers: Under 6, Janice Baker and Ruth Marshall; 6 to 8 years Mrs. Warne; 8 to 10 years, Muriel Hiltz; 10 and 11 years, Mrs. J. Kirkwood; Intermediate Girls: Mrs. F. J. Shortill and Mrs. N. Sinclair; Intermediate Boys, Jean Sinclair; Seniors: Mrs. Jesse McEnery; Bible Class, Miss B. Hiltz and Miss M. Young.

Mrs. John May of Markdale visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Ferguson.

Mrs. F. J. Shortill is confined to her home with an attack of virus pneumonia. We hope she will soon be up and around again.

The little four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frost suffered a painful accident last week. When climbing a ladder in the barn he fell and broke both his arms and severely bruised his face.

Members of the W.A. met at the manse on Saturday and presented Mrs. Gibb with a stork shower.

GLEN WILLIAMS

Beat Streetsville In Thrilling Hockey Game

In their second game of the season in Georgetown Arena Friday, Glen Williams won a close game with Streetsville, who filled in for Zimmerman when the latter team had to postpone a scheduled visit.

The Glen scored early in the first with Don Currie and Glenn Scott teaming for the goal. They added three more in the 2nd, Blake Inglis scoring a solo, Bud Haines and Grassy another, and Johnny Haines scoring in the last minute of play. Streetsville's only goal was scored at the eleven minute mark.

Streetsville put on the pressure to catch up in the last period, but left an opening for Jarvie to score on a pass from Grassy. The power play continued and paid off in three goals for the visitors. It was exciting hockey from then on with Streetsville pressing for the equalizer and all around the Glen net as the whistle blew.

Mel Beaumont ably handled the game. Playing for the Glen were Charlie Jones, J. Haines, Hepburn, Inglis, C. Schenk, B. Haines, Grassy, Jarvie, G. Scott, H. Spitzer, D. Currie, E. Thompson, H. Hiltz, G. McClure.

For Streetsville, G. Blake, Quint Ferri, R. Blake, L. Bentley, R. Hutt, R. Pengilly, C. Arch, D. Smiley, A. Harrison, Clark Lyons, J. Jacobs, G. Gilbert, G. Hamilton, W. Hutt, B. Merritt.

This Friday the Glen will play the Woodbridge Seniors, a strong team rated equal to any good OHA Intermediate B team. The line-up will be strengthened with Junior Beaumont, Gerry Inglis and Jack Kemshead, Glen boys who play for Georgetown Intermediates.

Legion Notes

ONCE AGAIN, a Legion year has drawn to a close and once again the time for the annual election of officers has rolled around. The annual meeting is Sunday and let's see all the members out to vote. The Legion is a big organization with approaching 400 members, and each of those members should be on hand for the election which is next Sunday at 2.30 in the Legion auditorium. Let's see every member on hand.

An initiation for any new members or those who for one reason or another, have failed to be initiated, will be held before the election on Sunday, at 2 o'clock.

TSK! TSK! What a thing to happen! In this month's notice (as you have probably noticed) there's what is probably the daddy of all typographical errors! On the list of officers for 1952, somehow the "2" was changed to "3," and appeared as Officers 1953. We're sorry that it happened, especially just before the election but were innocent of it, until pointed out last night by friend Sykes. We can assure all the Comrades we weren't trying to reelect everyone without benefit of an election.

LAST MONDAY'S hockey game was a thriller with Lakeshore playing here. Our kids put up a real battle against a heavier faster team, an A team to boot. By the time the boys enter the playoffs in our own group, after playing all these games against A teams, they should be in top condition.
