Glen Completes Schedule Enters ORHA Playoffs
Glen Williams has won two more hockey games, and finished their regular schedule with a record of five wins and one tie. They are now standing by for the first round of the ORHA playoffs.

On Friday the thirteenth in Milton Arena, Zimmerman were the victims in an 8-4 victory which saw the Glen leading all through the game. Scott with 3, Carl Schenk and Harold Hills with two and Haines were Glen Sharpshooters. Bridgeman, Watson and Englehart scored the Zimmerman goals.

Last Tuesday Glen Williams played a return exhibition game with Woodbridge. The home team was out to avenge a previous defeat, but fell 6-4 in a very fast game. Charlie Jones in goal was particularly sensational in the last period. Scott, Inglis, Varey, Beaumont and Johnny Haines (2) scored for the Glen.
