Fifty Golden Years

FROM MARCH 20th, 1903

Fifty years of meeting
In friendship's circle bright;
Fifty years of greeting
Our neighbours on our right.

Fifty years of kindness
To all within our reach;
Fifty years of mindness
The love of home to teach.

Fifty years of doing
All the good we can;
Fifty years of trying
To be a friend to man.

Fifty years of remembering,
A country we love dear;
Fifty years of spreading
To the less fortunate — good cheer.

Fifty years of halting
A dozen extra tarts
To take down the road to widow
Brown,
To please her children's hearts.

Fifty years of swapping,
Our best recipes for pies;
Fifty years of seeking,
The county fair's first prize.

Fifty years of mottoes,
All good, tried and true;
Fifty years of programmes
Depending on me and you.

Fifty years of subscribing
To many a worthy cause,
Fifty years of paying
To an urgency — without a pause.

And fifty years of praying
'Let us not forget to be kind.'
And fifty years of seeking,
The good of all mankind.

Fifty years of history,
Of pleasure and of pain,
May we be found still worthy,
When fifty years rolls 'round again.
