NORVAL

R. CRAWFORD NEW STORE PROPRIETOR

The population of Norval was increased last week by the arrival from Streetsville of Mr. Robert Crawford, his wife and two children Robert and Joan. They moved into the store formerly operated by Mrs. E. Parrett who with her brother Mr. J. Herbert moved away on Tuesday.

A memorial service for the late Queen Mary was held on Tuesday morning in St. Paul's Anglican Church here. Rev. J. B. Maxwell conducted the service.

The April meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Burke on Thursday, April 2nd. The Girls Club modelled pyjamas and housecoats made under the direction of Mrs. Burke. Well, actually the club didn't model them, the girls did. They were Marilyn Cleave, Ina Webb, Mary Lou Alexander, Louise Webb and Jean McLaughlin.

We suppose this is as good a place as any for the Scout corner — here goes — our troop expanded last week, by one. Bob Crawford made a welcome appearance at the meeting and was placed in the Beaver patrol. He was a PL in the Streetsville troop. There's a slide show tonight about the jamboree at Jamaica. We'll tell you more about that next week.

A few more car accidents in the village and some lucky person will be able to make a fortune as an auto wrecker. This last one although minor, brought the total up to umpteenth bedillion. The car went into the ditch at Barnhill's corner and had a nasty scuffle with the culvert. The culvert won. There wasn't much bending of fenders but it took quite a few to lift it out.

The euchre and dance in the Parish Hall on Monday night brought out record crowds. Doris Hulls' Orchestra provided the music and everyone had a good time.

A Good Friday service in the United Church welcomed new members into the congregation. They were Mrs. S. Fishburn, Mrs. Burke, Mr. B. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. John Thurlbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Shea, Mrs. W. Laidlaw, Mrs. G. Laidlaw.

The weather was rather drab on Easter Sunday but it failed to stop the large numbers of people from attending their respective churches. The Easter bunny did his work as usual.

J. Hoey Construction Co. is excavating a basement under the Anglican Church. "Boy, what a mess of dirt."

This is a miserably short column but if the Easter Bunny finds his way home safely and the paper situation in Northern Sloboria does not get too critical we'll try to do better next time.

HALL — In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Ada Hall, who passed away April 11th, 1948. As a wonderful mother we still think of you, In memories that are still fond and true.
