Lacrosse Due for Revival

While no definite plans have yet been centres. It would revive a sport locally which completed, all indications point to a season of lacrosse in Georgetown Arena this sum-

Sparked by a group of players and supporters in Georgetown, Glen Williams, and Norval, it is expected that a combined team Midland who also did much to encourage the will enter the district league, with players game in Norval during his stay there. Since drawn mainly from last year's Acton B-Hives.

It is understood that the Board of Parks Management is agreeable to the use of the arena and that sand can be used to cover the pipes, rather than using a board floor which would be a costly project. The Combines team would enter a league with Acton, Streetsville, Burlington, Brantford and other

These young men have done something which few others would attempt; and their adventures are now paying off in a busy round of illustrated talks. For our money, their travelogue is a notch above most of the commercial productions seen in a movie show. We look forward to seeing more of their work in a promised visit next fall.

Just Like Taking a Trip

As close to India as most of their listeners will ever be, the Wilkins Brothers of Toronto provided a real treat for a large audience when they presented their coloured mo- to view in person what the camera has revies in the Legion Hall last week.

Warren and Douglas Wilkins proved to be not only good photographers, but to have a rare gift of explaining what they saw without pedantry. They have a delicate sense of humour which avoids being "smart-alecky" and escape he pitfalls of too many commentators, for they do not pose as experts on Far Eastern affairs, nor do they attempt to inter-
