NORVAL

Mrs. Fred McLaughlin Dies of Heart Attack

Mrs. Fred McLaughlin, R. R. 2, Norval, succumbed to a heart attack at her home on Friday.

Mrs. McLaughlin had been in poor health for some time, but death came quite suddenly. She had just entered the house after returning from a shopping trip to Brampton.

The former Alice Emma Clarke, she was born at Norwich, England, daughter of George Clarke and Marie Howell. She had lived at Lot 6, concession 11, Esqueping, since her marriage in 1910.

Surviving are her husband and two sons, Claude and Richard, both at home; two sisters, Mrs. Charles Goodyear (Elsie) of Brampton and Marion of Toronto and five brothers, George, William and James Clarke, Brampton, Louis Clarke, Toronto and Arthur Clarke, Sarnia.

Rev. L. G. Royal of Norval Presbyterian Church conducted the funeral service on Monday at the McKillop Funeral Home, Brampton, with interment following in Hillcrest Cemetery. Pallbearers were William South, Albert Hunter, William Graham, Earl Hyatt, Milton Bird and Charles Goodyear.

Takes New Position At Kress Hotel

William Broughton, masseur and proprietor of the Old English Herb Co. since coming to Georgetown from England, started a new position on Monday at the Kress Mineral Springs Hotel in Preston.

Mr. Broughton will have charge of the health department at the hotel, famous for its mineral baths and massages. Earlier this year, Mr. and Mrs. Broughton and their family moved from town to a house near Limehouse. The family will stay there for a few weeks, but plan to move to Preston later.

Mr. Broughton has been an active Legion member during his stay in town and is president of the Imperial Section. A music lover, he has also sung with St. George's church choir.

Guelph Physician Was Well-known Locally

A prominent Guelph physician who had ministered to many Georgetown people, Dr. Henry Orton Howitt, 73, died on Sunday at St. Joseph's Hospital after a lengthy illness.

Dr. Howitt had retired because of ill health. He was born in Guelph, graduated from McGill University in 1904 and took post-graduate studies in England. He was medical officer of health for Guelph from 1910 to 1920 and dur-

Mock Wedding Features Shower for D. Hazell

On Wednesday evening, Mrs. Charles Sayers and Miss Beryle Pattenden, entertained forty ladies at Mrs. Sayers' home on Guelph St.

The occasion was a kitchen shower for Miss Doreen Hazell whose marriage to Arthur Wood takes place this Saturday. Miss Hazell, Joan Harrison and Pat Vance were guests of Mrs. Bill James for supper. When the bride-elect returned home, she was ushered under an arch of pink and white streamers. Mrs. J. L. Barber played the wedding march and a mock wedding was performed.

The bride (Margery Allen) came down the stairs on the arm of her father, (Teresa Harrison) to join the groom (Marlon Ritchie). The officiating clergyman was Myrtle Pattenden. All were gracefully attired in overalls, plaid shirts, coveralls and old felt hats. The rest of the evening was spent in games, with the hostesses serving a delicious lunch.

ing the first war was chief surgeon at Speedwell Military Hospital, now the Ontario Reformatory. During his career, he wrote many articles and contributed much to the advancement of surgery and medicine.

He leaves his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Angus Dunbar, Guelph and Mrs. George Ward, Dundas, and one son Henry, New York City.

LIONS AND WIVES AT KING EDWARD DANCE

A group of fifteen members of the Lions Club and their wives went to Toronto by chartered bus Thursday evening.

The group had dinner at the King Edward Hotel and stayed for the supper dance in the Oak Room. Joe Marchment, with his guitar, kept everyone in a merry mood on the trip, leading a stag-song which lasted from town to city and home again.
