Lorne Scots Officers Have Coronation Ball

The armory at Brampton was the scene of a gala "formal ball" last Friday evening when Lt.-Col. John R. Barber and the officers of the Lorne Scots regiment held their Coronation Ball. The yearly ball was combined with this in honour of the approaching coronation. The armory was beautifully decorated with silver, red, white and blue and with masses of flowers and plants. Combined with the officers' uniforms or "talls" and the ladies' evening dresses made this one of the most colourful and successful balls ever held.

The main floor of the armory was given over to dancing, while a buffet supper was served in the officers' Mess.

A number from Georgetown attended, including: Lt. Col. and Mrs. John R. Barber, Lt.-Col. and Mrs. G. B. S. Cousens, Major and Mrs. Paul Barber, Major and Mrs. Bob Early, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Clark, Capt. and Mrs. Alex Calder, Mr. and Mrs. James Alcorn, Lieut. and Mrs. Dick Crichton, Lieut. and Mrs. Bob Hoare. Former residents present included Capt. and Mrs. Grant Mims and Mr. and Mrs. Fritz DeVries.
