

DR. J.A. McEWEN, physician and country coroner, carries on the oldest practice in Carleton Place, Ontario.

anxious calls for help, words of comfort and advice . . . there's drama every day

Over the Doctor's telephone

For forty years, in this office on Bridge Street, Dr. McEwen has answered the calls of his patients. Today at 70, Dr. McEwen still continues his practice in Carleton Place - a practice which has touched the lives of thousands.

Think of the reassuring comfort, the help in time of trouble brought to millions because doctors everywhere can be quickly reached by telephone. Think what this means to you and your family in peace of mind, in safer, more pleasant living. Then you'll realize that no price can measure the value of your telephone.

BALLINAFAD

Minister, Wife at Emmanuel Grad Tea

Congratulations to our minister Mr. W. Gibb who was one of the twenty eight students of Emmanuel College receiving their graduating diplomas at Bloor Street United Church last Wednesday night. Mr. Gibb has carried on a faithful ministry on this charge during the last four years and deserves much credit. He will be ordained in Hamilton early in June and will be assigned to a mission field at that time. Mr. and Mrs. Gibb also attended a tea at Emmanuel for graduates and families on Wednesday afternoon.

Lovely spring flowers added much to the Mothers Day service Sunday morning. The theme for family week was "The Christian Foundations for every home." The Scripture lessons were read by Diana Swindlehurst. The story "They Stopped their Quarrelling" was read Willamina Braescotten of the in ermediate class. The hymn "When Mothers of Salem" was sung as a duet by Shirley Kirkwood and Bonnie Cotton of the Junior class. Mary Ann Maxwell led in the allotted prayers. The story of David was read by Marjery Gibson. Mr. Gibb preached an appropriate sermon stressing the thought that children should be taken, not sent to church and Sunday School also that families should attend services together regularly and not just on special Sundays. Christian families are the foundation of our church and of our nation, he said. The anthem by the choir was "My Mother's Bible." Mrs. E. Shortill, Miss Reta Shortill and Mrs. Deborah Rickettes of Guelph spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Shortill and were welcome visitors at our church service. Mr. and Mrs. James Miller of

Oakville Toronto were week-end visitors Central; Derek Green, Trafalgar with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall. Mr. and Mrs. C. Snow and fam-Duet, Girls 12 and over Sandra ily of Crewson Corners attended our church service and spent the
