CATTLE BREEDERS WILL PICNIC AT THE OAC

A day in June at the Ontario Agricultural College is always an event annually looked forward to by the Guernsey, Holstein and Jersey breeders of Halton and Peel Counties. This year the combined field day and picnic is scheduled for early June. The programme gets underway with dinner at noon, when the group will be guests of the Ontario Agricultural College. The afternoon programme will include tours, judging competitions, and a sports programme for the kiddies. Farmers' Week at the OAC is scheduled for the following week, namely June 8 to 12th.
