MISS STONE HOSTESS FOR W.I. MEETING

The Women's Institute were invited to hold their May meeting at Miss Stone's home last week. Being an evening meeting, the first thing was to see the garden — the tulips were beautiful and everyone enjoyed the flowers. Miss Stone played the piano for the opening ode. Two new members joined. The Penny Round Up bags were handed in by the members. This is a project to assist the children's mental hospitals. Programs for the year were issued. Mrs. Reid entertained with her piano accordion. Mrs. R. Harris presided at the meeting. Miss Stone served a dainty lunch. Happy birthday to Gary Johnson who will be eight years old next Tuesday, May 26th. The W.A. meeting was held last week at Mrs. C. Smith's home. Visitors with Mrs. Lawson Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. William Lawson and daughter Beth of Toronto. The children had a holiday from school Monday to celebrate the Queen's birthday.

GLEN WILLIAMS

Williams played the new organ which is planned as a memorial to servicemen who lost their lives in the war, and also in memory of the late Miss Russell and in recognition of many years' faithful service by Lindley Beaumont as organist.
