Didn't Win Opener But Prospects Good

By Elmer
 Baseball in Georgetown got away to a flying start Wednesday evening when the Georgetown team took on the Milton nine. The largest crowd for several seasons was on hand to enjoy this great summer sport.

Mayor Jack Armstrong showed he was an old baseball fan, by being one of the rooters. Other prominent persons present included Pete McMullin and Jim Waldie of Milton, president and secretary-treasurer of Halton Baseball Association.

The town council is doing its part to see that the local diamond is put in the best playing shape possible. They are adding a bit more soil to the pitcher's box and home plate, and grading it properly. They are putting in permanent benches for each team, and a dressing room in the east end of the grandstand. This is one feature that has been needed for years. Also there is talk of putting snow fence around the limits of the outfield so the ball hitters will have a chance to make a few home runs. The management of the team has worked hard to line up a group of players who will give all they have... and that's plenty. Several young fellows have been brought up from junior ranks and are showing great promise.

We are certain from this line-up that coach Chaplin will be able to weld a machine that will go places this year.

 In this Halton league with six teams, Waterdown, Campbellville, Oakville, Milton, Port Credit and Georgetown, the latter three are Intermediate B. At the conclusion of the regular season they will start the playoffs, with 2nd and 3rd teams playing a 3-out of 5 series, and the winner taking on the 1st place team in a 4-of-7 series. The winner of this will go on in the OBA provincial playdowns.

Now for a report of the opening game of May 20th.

Douglas was on the mound and pitched a good game, his fault being that he was a little too free with walks. He has improved considerably over the past two seasons.

Georgetown got away to a good start, taking a one run lead in the 1st innings. Milton gained two runs in the 3rd and the score held till the 6th when Milton got another run. In the 7th Douglas tired, and through passes, walks and errors, Milton garnered another 4 runs, making the final score 7-1.

It was a good game to watch and for six innings was real close. With more practice and condition, the local boys will be able to reverse the score, and they have this opportunity when Milton comes back to town for a Saturday afternoon game on May 30th.

Name Lacrosse Team Georgetown N & G's

Georgetown's intermediate lacrosse team has been christened "Georgetown N & G's, N and G standing for Notval and Glen Williams, from where a good number of the team come.

A busy two months of games is contained in the schedule released this week for the seven-team league. Starting this week, the team will play a double series with each team, a total of 24 games in all, half in their home base of Georgetown Arena and half on the road.

Home games have been set for Wednesday and Friday evenings, except for one on a Monday towards the end of August. Friday is the night chosen as lacrosse night and eight games are scheduled for Friday nights through the summer, beginning with the opening here with Sarnia on the fifth.

All teams will play in their home town except Ohsweken, which plays in Caledonia. League standing will be important, with the two top teams playing off as Intermediate A, the next two as Intermediate B and the last three as Intermediate C.
