Stanley A. Allen

Co-Operative Commonwealth Federation

Stan Allen, the CCF candidate for Halton was born in Georgetown thirty-nine years ago. He resides there now with his wife and two children. An older son is serving with the Royal Canadian Navy. Employed with the firm of Smith and Stone, he is also active in union work, filling the offices of President of Local 788 of the I.B.E.W. and President of the Provincial Council of that Union.

Stan is serving his second term on the Municipal Council of Georgetown and is a member of the Canadian Legion and the Independent Order of Oddfellows. During the war he served overseas for four years with the Fourth Canadian Divisional Signals.

WE ARE PROUD TO HAVE AS OUR CANDIDATE A MAN WHO HAS SHOWN HIMSELF READY TO SERVE HIS COUNTRY IN TIME OF WAR AND HIS COMMUNITY IN TIME OF PEACE.

Add High School Class County Ploving Match

Halton Juniors are cooperating with the senior plovers in staging the annual Junior Match on September 5th. In this connection it is proposed to add a special class for Inter-Secondary School competition. While details have not been completed it is expected that each of Halton's three High School Areas will be eligible to enter a team of two students in this special tractor class.

N&G's DEHORN RAMS CLOSE LACROSSE GAME

Threatening at times to break out into an old-time Acton-Georgetown Donnybrook the local N&G's edged the Acton Rams 11-10 in an Intermediate OLA thriller at the Arena last Wednesday night.

In command of the game for three periods and leading 3-2, 6-2 and 9-5 by periods, the local stalwarts faltered in the final quarter and Acton with a last period surge that saw them outscore the locals 5-2 almost pulled the game out of the fire.

Late in the quarter Caruso and Geary were given majors for fighting, followed shortly by McCandless with a minor for roughing. With the odd-man advantage Acton swarmed in to the attack and only some grand defensive work and some clever saves by Cuthbert held the Rams off.

Acton came within an ace of tying the score in the final minute, when Doug Smith hit the post. However, the pressure was eased when Mann joined the penitents in the sin-bin with a misconduct for casting reflections on referee Eddie Walsh's ancestors, and Georgetown hung on to win.

Scotty Maddison was one of the top hands for the N&G's, scoring twice and clicking for three assists. Zeke McCandless and Junior Beaumont scored twice while Jim Cleave, Doug Townsend, Don Ross, Gord Wilson and Len Caruso had singles. For Acton, Mann scored four, Bennett and Geary two apiece and Lynn and L. Smith singles.

The crowd wasn't up to expectations for an Acton-Georgetown encounter but was an improvement on the previous game.

NEW SIDEWALK AN ASSET

The new sidewalk from the highway to the post office is a decided asset on this busy thoroughfare so close to the centre of town.
