BRADLEY FAMILY OFF FOR EUROPEAN TOUR

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bradley and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Harding will sail from New York City this week, en route for a two-and-a-half month tour of Britain and the continent.

They are crossing the Atlantic on the Dutch liner, Nieuw Amsterdam and will first visit Holland and Belgium, continue on through West Germany and down the Rhine to Switzerland and Italy. Later they will spend some time on the Riviera and in Paris and in August will be in England.

They plan to come home by plane in mid-September.

BISHOP BUYS LOCAL ACCOUNTING PRACTICE

Alfred G. Bishop, a certified public accountant, will be a new resident of Georgetown in the near future. Mr. Bishop, who has purchased the accounting and auditing practice of A. J. Crandell, intends to bring his wife and family to town as soon as he finds a suitable home.

Mr. Bishop took over this week from Mr. Crandell, who is taking a position in Toronto with the Income Tax Department. He will continue the office in its location in the Norton Building on Main Street.

A native of Bristol, England, he has been in Canada since 1927. He worked on a farm near Napanee when he first emigrated; and three years later moved to Toronto where he was a technician on the University of Toronto staff for some years.
He later studied for his accounting degree and has had his own practice in the city up to the present.

Mr. and Mrs. Bishop are members of the Anglican church. They have two children, Donald, 7 and Linda, 5.

MINISTER LEAVES FOR NEW SUDBURY POST

Members and adherents of the United Church met Thursday night in the Church to make a presentation to Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Gibb who left Sudbury for their new charge at Sudbury. Mr. F. J. Shor-till was chairman for the evening and a program of local talent was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Gibb were called forward and the following address was read by Jim Kirkwood Jr.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Gibb: This evening is being held in your honour as the community's way of showing their appreciation for the service you have rendered during your ministry here. The numbers and activity of the various organizations and of the church itself afford ample evidence of the energy and conviction of your efforts and the wisdom of your guidance. Especially do the children and young people thank you both for the organization and inspiration you have given to the Sunday School, Vacation School, Mission Band and Young People's Union.

Mr. Gibb, we congratulate you on your success in college, climaxed by your recent ordination. Your work here is even more praiseworthy when we realize the increased effort and concentration required to offset the limited time you had at your disposal. Not only in school but also in the pulpit have we watched you increase in wisdom and in favour with God and man as your messages become more appealing and more challenging. We are sure this growing up together has been profitable to both you and ourselves, since it has served to strengthen the bond between us. Just as your messages have guided our lives so has your life of Christian friendship and your love for your fellowman afforded us a living example.

When one thinks of the past one also comes to think of the future. As you and your family go forth from our midst we are proud of your past endeavours and confident that on your new charge the work of the Lord will go forward in faith and sincerity because God will go forward with you.

Mr. N. Sinclair then presented Mr. and Mrs. Gibb with a well filled purse. Mr. Gibb thanked the people not only for the parting gift but for their loyalty and friendship during the past four years. "We will never forget the many true friends we have made here who have stood by us in our joys and in our sorrows and feel greatly uplifted and encouraged by the apparent spiritual growth among the members of the congregation."

Mrs. Gibb was presented with a farewell gift from the Mission Band by Brock Robinson and Bonnie Cotton. Mrs. F. Smith on behalf of the W.A. gave Mrs. Gibb a lovely Coronation plate. Mrs. Gibb thanked them both in a heartfelt manner.
The evening closed with singing "Blest Be the Tie that Binds" and refreshments being served.

ASHGROVE

Presentation for Lecks Three - Church Picnic

A large community picnic was held at Stanley Park, Erin, on Friday, June 28th when the three churches of the Hornby charge gathered Two hundred and forty people sat down to a sumptuous dinner which quickly disappeared. After all were satisfied a presentation of an electric vacuum cleaner was given to Rev. and Mrs. George Leck who are leaving this charge. We are all so sorry to lose this fine couple. Races, swimming and a ball game ended a wonderful picnic.

Rev. Leck conducted an impressive Sacrament Service on Sunday morning. It was also his farewell message which saddened the occasion for all. Two new members joi-

Seattle Resident Was Native of Georgetown

Following a short illness, Mrs. Is-dora Sterrett, 80, died on June 6th in Seattle, Washington, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. L.
Boldman.

She was the daughter of Latham and Eliza Stull, of UEL descent, was born near Georgetown and spent her girlhood in this vicinity.
She attended the 7th Line Stone School and was a member of St.
George's Anglican Church.

Following her marriage to Harland L. Sterrett of the same community, she left for Portland, Oregon, where she resided for many years, later taking up residence in Seattle.

The funeral took place at the Wiggins & Son Funeral Home on June 10th. The service was conducted by Rev. George Hartung of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, with entombment in Acadia Mausoleum overlooking Lake Washington. There were many beautiful floral tributes and she will be greatly missed by ned our church, Will Hardy and Earl Beers and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Blackett, newcomers in our midst come to us from First United church in Galt. Before the communion was administered, Mr. and Mrs.

Fred Wrigglesworth presented a beautiful Communion Service to the Ashgrove United Church which will be always treasured.

The WMS will have charge of the service Sunday morning when Miss Jane Scott, a writer for the Globe and Mail will be the speaker. Service will commence at eleven o'clock.

Master Peter Anderson of Kirkland Lake is visiting his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ruddell.
