Newlyweds Presentation At Baptist Church Picnic

The Baptist Church Sunday School picnic was held on Saturday at Stanley Park, Erin, when about one hundred and twenty five children and adults gathered to participate in the program of sports and the various other facilities that this beautiful park has to offer. At the conclusion of the supper hour, gifts were presented to the youngest and oldest members of the church, the recipients being baby Linda Peck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Peck, Main St. and Mrs. Lily Shortill, who also resides on Main Street. A happy feature of the evening was the presentation of a table and chair to a recent bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Emery Thompson. A ball game concluded a most enjoyable afternoon.

Indians Outclassed N & G's Win 22-6

Outclassing the visitors in every department the local N&G's experienced little difficulty in rolling to a lop sided 22-6 win over the Oshawa Indians in an intermediate OLA game at the arena last Friday night. Breaking in front the locals led 5-2 at the quarter. They increased the margin to 9-2 at half time. In a dull third period, each team scored twice. Breaking out into a rash of goals in the final period Georgetown counted eleven tallies. The Indians replied with two, to bring the final count to 22-6.

Len Caruso was a stand out for the N&G's. Scoring almost at will he registered eleven markers. Junior Beaumont lit the lamp three times, Jim Cleave and Doug Townsend had two apiece, with singles going to Scotty Moddison, Bill Louth, Zeke McCandless and McConnell. J. Martin scored two for the Indians, Harris, N. Martin, Hill and Peters' singles. The fans once again were conspicuous by their absence — the game needs their support if it is to be a success. How about getting behind the team? —S.H.
