Double-Ring Ceremony Morrison-Nixon Wedding

At a double-ring ceremony in Knox Presbyterian Church, Milton, on Saturday afternoon, June 27th, Joan Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Nixon, of Milton, and Donald Robert Morrison, Caledonia, were married by the Rev. E. Orsborn.

The bride, given away by her father, wore a full-skirted gown of ice blue Alencon lace over satin, made with scalloped hemline, and a fingertip veil caught to her matching headress. She carried a white bouquet of stephanotis and gladioli arranged with ivy. Mrs. R. Case sister of the bride and Miss Beverley Morrison, the groom's sister and a niece of the bride, Nancy Case, flower girl attending her were all dressed in dusty rose tulle over taffeta, the first two carrying peach pink carnations and gladioli matching their flowered headresses, and the flower girl a miniature arrangement of blue cornflowers. Best man was Mr. Kenneth Neilson, Caledonia. Ushers were Mr. Robert Matthews, Dunnville, cousin of the groom; and Mr. Russell Case, Milton, the bride's brother-in-law. Mrs. Ronald Wright played the wedding music which was sung by Mrs. Harold Magee.

Receiving, the brides' mother was in blue shirred chiffon, with a Gainsborough hat and pink Sweetheart roses in her corsage. With her navy blue lace over taffeta frock, the groom's mother wore a yellow aht and a yellow corsage of roses.

For going away, the bride was in a white and blue summer suit with accessories in navy blue and white. On return from Northern Ontario, where they are honeymooning, the couple will live on Sutherland Street East, Caledonia.
