Smallest Crowd Sees N&G's Wallop Streetsville

S. H.
Playing before the smallest crowd of the season the local N&G's ran rough shod over Streetsville Thistles trouncing them 20-5 in an Intermediate OLA game at the Arena Friday.

In a close checking first period the locals held a 2-1 edge; in the second the N&G's pulled out all the stops and ran in seven counters, while blanking the visitors.

Sale under the management of
HAYS FARMS LTD.
Box 64 — Oakville, Ont.

Streetsville played their best lacrosse in the third period holding the locals even most of the way and to a 4-3 edge in the period. In the final quarter the N&G's ran wild again, outscoring the visitors 7-1 and running the final count to 20-5.

Zeke McCandless was the big gunner for the N&G's racking up five markers, Len Caruso hit for three, George Grasy, Doug Townsend, Junior Beaumont and Gord Wilson had two apiece; Bill Louth, Don Ross, Russ Fendley and McCandless scored singles.

Widdis looked the best for Streetsville, bagging three of their goals. Burton and Wallace got the others.

Counter attractions such as the Garden Party in the Glen no doubt had some bearing on the small attendance but it begins to look as if the management will have to emulate Jack Kent Cooke — he of the baseball Leafs — and give away a car in order to lure the customers to the ticket window.
