Mackenzie News

We don't know where the flies come from or go to, but we do know that plenty of screens are among life's greatest comforts.

A screen and storm door complete with screen and glass costs $17.45 in standard sizes. A special combination lock costs $2.40 and a pair of hinges 80c. Call us the sizes of your screens and we will be glad to quote you.

See you cutting your grass or weeding the garden between showers.

Georgetown ladies are going to have an opportunity to hear Margaret Aitken, Toronto reporter tomorrow, Thursday, July 9th, when she will speak at a tea which has been arranged in the Legion auditorium by the local Progressive Conservative Association.

Informality will be the keynote at the tea which will be held from three o'clock. Women employed in any of the local industries, are especially invited to drop in after work to hear Miss Aitken, who herself is a federal election candidate in Toronto, and Sybil Bennett, who is seeking election in Halton. Miss Aitken will give some first-hand information about her trip to the Coronation.

All ladies in town and district are cordially invited to attend. Bring the children as playroom facilities are available. (ADV.)

NORVAL

DICK BOUMA OPENS GARAGE AT NORVAL

A new businessman in Norval is Dick Bouma, who has reopened the Regent Service Station which Doug Woods ran until he closed it down a few months ago.

Mr. Bouma will run the business as Dick's Garage. An experienced mechanic, he has worked in the Canada Coach shops in Hamilton and at Dawson Motor Sales, and has also worked at the Avro plant at Malton.

Native of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, he is married and has three children, Beverley, Donnie and Linda.

Four Years in England Don Jourdain Home

Back from England, where he has been living in London for four years, Don Jourdain arrived by plane last week at Malton.

Don was working at Goodlet's Hardware when he decided to make his home overseas. His wife and two children will be joining him here later this summer. His mother, Mrs. Mary Jourdain, who has been visiting with them is also due home soon.

VISIT OAC

Several members of Georgetown Women's Institute and friends spent Monday at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph.

It was the first day of "Women's Week" when the college is thrown open to ladies of various organizations. Special programs are held throughout the week, and the local ladies had a most enjoyable day at this beautiful spot.
