STAFF CHANGES AT BANK OF COMMERCE

John Oswald of Chesley has replaced David Slorach on the Bank of Commerce staff here. Mr. Slorach has been transferred to the Palmerston branch.

Mr. Oswald came to Georgetown from Minden, and has been at several other branches including Weston since joining the bank staff in his home town.

Committee Rooms Are Opened by Local P-C's

The Georgetown Progressive-Conservative Association have obtained the building occupied for many years by P. F. Blackburn, next to Thompson's Hardware for a committee room and it is expected that it will be opened this week-end until the end of the present federal election campaign.

MACKENZIE NEWS

This weather makes us appreciate our ample water supply — and we won't be paying for the extra water for months yet.

Summer is the ideal time to get your re-roofing done. Vee-lock asphalt shingles, 125 lb. per square are $6.60. Lockfast, 180 lbs. per square are $8.75 and Standard 210 lb. are $9.75. Come in and see the new colours and blends.

Anyway this is good weather for cottagers.

MEMORIALS

LAWS — In loving memory of a dear husband and father Fred Laws who passed away, July 24, 1949.

Sadly missed by his wife and family.

MILLAR — In loving memory of my dear husband, Isaac (Ike) Millar, who passed away July 21, 1951.

It seemed as if the Lord had said:
Your loved one from more pain I'll spare.

But unto you I'll give instead,
The pain of loneliness to bear.

Fondly remembered by wife Faye and family.

CARDS OF THANKS

ALCOTT — My sincere thanks to all who sent cards and gifts, and for acts of kindness while I was a patient in Guelph General Hospital and during my convalescence — Mrs. Ernie Alcott.

EMMERSON — Mrs. Joe Emmerson thanks friends for flowers, cards and gifts received while she was a patient in Guelph General Hospital and since returning home.

ZILIO — Alexander Zilio wishes to thank those who sent gifts and cards while he was a patient in Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton.

Former Georgetowners Neighbours in South

Subscribing to Feather (Fancier poultry paper, Albert Margrett wrote editor Corey Herrington that he was a Georgetown resident half a century ago.

Mr. Margrett, who lives in Lykesland, South Carolina, went to school here when his father was minister at the Congregational Church, and asked for the Arnold boys and Perc Coffin when he wrote. Oddly enough, Pat Coffin, brother of Perc Coffin of town also lives in South Carolina and the two men may get together for a visit.
