Groom's Grandparents Were Residents Here

Grandson of two Georgetown couples, the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moore and the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morrow, William Robert Moore married Helen Ruth Steacy in St. Paul's United Church, Brampton. Rev. J. A. McDermid officiated. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Moore, Brampton.

Mrs. Fulton played the wedding music and Miss Gwen Little sang The Lord's Prayer and O Perfect Love during the service.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, E. G. Steacy, was gowned in full length white nylon tulle and lace over taffeta, halter neckline, topped with long sleeved lace jacket and fingertip veil. She carried red sweetheart roses, stephanotis and white orchids.

Zelma McCracken, as maid of honour, was gowned in floor length orchid nylon over pink taffeta, with a strapless tucked bodice and matching stole. Eleanor Steacy, her sister, bridesmaid, wore blue nylon tulle over pink taffeta and both attendants carried bronze roses and wore matching flower bandeaux.

Donald Keuleman was groomsmen and the ushers were Ross Selton and Robert Marshall. Following the reception in the church parlour, Mr. and Mrs. Moore left for a honeymoon trip in the Adirondacks. They are living in Brampton.

—Don't forget that Georgetown Fall Fair has been changed this year to Saturday, October 3rd.
