

FASTBALLERS WIN MAY PLAY AURORA

Last night Georgetown's fastball entry defeated Action in a best three out of five series, to win their group. The local boys will stand by now until another group is ready to play off with them. It is expected that the next team they meet will be Aurora, possibly this week-end.

WILL CONTINUE STUDIES

A graduate of Milton High School this year, Thelma Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hunter of Norval will attend Queen's University this fall. She has enrolled in the course in Arts and Physical and Health Education.

GEORGETOWN'S M.P. PICTURED IN "TIME"

Possibly the first Georgetown resident to ever have their picture in Time Magazine, Sybil Bennett, M.P. was featured along with Mrs. Ann Shipley and Mrs. Ellen Fairclough, who will be three of the four lady members of the next dominion parliament. The Canadian section of this famous news magazine gave prominent display to the three ladies, and told something of their background.

Theatre Holds Benefit For Swimming Pool Fund

A generous gesture by manager Bill Leslie of the Roxy Theatre will add to the fund being started for a municipal swimming pool. Sunday evening, Mr. Leslie is donating the theatre for a special show, featuring "The Georgetown Stars Are Singing", on the Roxy stage. With Kenneth R. Harrison as musical director and Mayor Jack Armstrong emcee, such well-known local singers as Eleanor Schenk, Paul Barber and Michael Armstrong will appear. Also on the program from the district will be Barry Archer, Myrna Wilson, Barry Burne, Johnny Shepherd, Karen Brigden and Donna Clements. A silver collection will be given to the Swimming Pool Fund, and it is hoped to see a packed house to enjoy this wonderful show and help a project which has been so long needed in town.

Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Evans, Mary and Barbara spent last week at Ahmic Harbour.

Miss Carlie Peppier of Montreal is visiting her fellow student at Havergal College, Miss Jane Milne this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Shankland and family have returned from a vacation visit in Trenton, N.J., with Mrs. Shankland's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Lloyd.

Miss Isobel Dobson had a wonderful vacation trip east when she visited at Sussex, N.B., with Dr. and Mrs. Stewart Magwood. With the Magwoods she went on a motor trip through Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, visiting such places in the maritimes as Halifax and Charlottetown.

Miss E. Latham, of State Teachers College, Trenton, N.J. will be visiting in town until the first week in September with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parton. Another member of the college staff, Miss Elsie Millward, is expected Thursday and will stay with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ritchie, along with Mrs. Alice Naylor of Point Pleasant, Pennsylvania.

Papermill Employees Have Picnic at Barber's Beach

Employees of Provincial Paper, Ltd. and their families had a picnic on Sunday afternoon at Barber's Beach.

Besides swimming, a program of races and games was held in the afternoon, featuring a tug of war, slipper race and ball throw. Tea and drinks for the children was provided, with families taking their own picnic baskets for lunch.

Four Local Girls in Canada Day Pageant

Institute ladies from Georgetown and district were in Toronto on Friday, when Canada Day was held in Maple Leaf Gardens in honour of the triennial conference of the Associated Country Women of the World.

It was a full day for the ladies. The afternoon was taken up with a varied program which included the official opening by Hon. Stuart Garson, Minister of Justice, and introduction of the provincial Women's Institute presidents.

Speakers included Mrs. Hugh Summers, Canadian president, and Mrs. Raymond Sayre, ACWW president, and a representative from each country present, dressed in national costume, brought greetings.

Oxford County junior farmers choir and organist Kathleen Stokes were also on the program.

In the evening, a pageant Dominion of Destiny, was presented. A repeat performance, open to the general public was held the next afternoon.

Georgetown had some small share in this, with Jean Ruddell, Ruth Brown, Anna Spitzer and Mrs. Herb Harlow, Jr. being members of the choir. The pageant reviewed Canada's history from pioneer days to the Coronation. Folk dancers, men and women from the services and the Red Cross, and Institute members were included in the cast, as well as singing stars Evelyn Gould
