Showers, Presentations Wednesday Bride-Elect

Miss Margaret Sargent, whose marriage to Andrew Molozai takes place tonight in St. George's Church, has been entertained by several friends during the past week.

On August 19th, Mrs. Emery Thompson entertained at a chicken dinner in Rockwood, where Miss Sargent was presented with a motor rug. Afterwards the girls attended a show in Guelph. The next day the girls of the Smith & Stone office staff had a personal shower.

August 25th, Mrs. Sam Walker entertained at a linen shower and the next evening, Mrs. Elmer Fendley was hostess to teachers and staff of St. George's Sunday School. Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson presented a blanket from the group.

Last Friday Miss Sargent was presented, with a blanket by members of the office staff at Smith & Stone. In the evening Mrs. John Patterson, Mrs. John Haines, Mrs. Emery Thompson, Mrs. Elmer Fendley, Mrs. Robert McCandless, Miss Toots Murphy, and Miss Joan Harrison journeyed to Toronto and had dinner at the Town and Country and afterwards attended a show. Miss Sargent was guest of honor.

Miss Sargent has been a valued member of the choir at St. George's Anglican Church and on Sunday morning after church, Thomas Warnes, choir president, presented a pop-up toaster and a parting gift from the choir.

On Monday, friends and neighbours of the groom gathered in Woodside School and presented the bride and groom with a chest of 1847 Rogers Brothers silverware.

TELLS FARMERS CLUB OF CORONATION TRIP

Speaking on her trip to the Coronation, Jean Mackenzie gave members of Terra Cotta Farmers Club some interesting sidelights on this great event at their meeting last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lily Crichton were hosts to the group in their new home. Mrs. John L. Barber, Georgetown, also contributed to the program with piano solos. Wilfrid Leslie was chairman for the meeting which had been arranged by Mrs. Campbell Sinclair and Mrs. John McClure.

At the ladies meeting, which preceded the joint gathering, Mrs. Norman Cameron gave recipes for four summer desserts which she had made. Later the delicacies were divided and passed around for sampling. Mrs. Jack McDonald presided at the ladies meeting and roll call was "My Most Enjoyable Summer Day."

ACTON DENTIST WAS PROMINENT SPORTSMAN

A former Acton dentist, lately a Newtonbrook resident, Dr. George Sirrs died suddenly while holidaying at Amherst, N.S.

In Acton, Dr. Sirrs was prominent in sporting circles, taking a particular interest in minor hockey and baseball. He served as coach, manager and on the executive of various sports groups.

Surviving are his wife, a daughter Mary, and son Hewitt.

Farmer at Union Was Prominent Churchman

Last member of the family of David Anderson and Mary Jane Kee, Thomas Anderson, 82, died August 25th at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Francis Thompson, R. R. 3, Georgetown.

Mr. Anderson was born at Ballinacree and lived on a farm near there with his parents, and later at Union. He married Margaret Ida McKane in 1901 and they farmed at Union until he retired in 1930, and moved to Georgetown. Mrs. Anderson died in 1935.

While at Union he was a member of the session of Union Presbyterian Church and served for many years as superintendent of the Sunday School. After moving to town he served on the session of Knox Presbyterian Church. Since 1939 he had made his home with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Thompson.

He is survived by three children Miss Gertrude Anderson, Niagara Falls; Clarence Anderson, Union and Ruth, Mrs. Francis Thompson, Georgetown. Also surviving are four grandchildren, Raymond, Donald, Betty Jean and David Anderson.

The funeral service on Friday at the McClure Funeral Home was conducted by Rev. Alex J. Calder of Knox Church, assisted by Rev. G. L. Royal of Norval and Union. Pallbearers were Manley Densmore, Albert Dolson, William Marshall and Campbell Sinclair of Georgetown, Wesley Ruffedge, Terra Cotta, and LaVerne Thompson, Union. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.

ACTON MAN WAS GHS GRADUATE

A Georgetown high school graduate who lived most of his life in Acton, William J. Reid, 67, died in Guelph General Hospital last week.

Retired for several years, he was last employed by Beardmore and Co. He was born in Saginaw, Michigan, and went to Acton as a child, attending business college in Guelph after finishing high school. He was a past master of Walker Masonic Lodge.

Surviving are four sons, Harold Ray Reid, Footes Bay, Pete Reid, Toronto, Gordon Reid, Port Colborne and Mervin Reid, Acton. He was predeceased by his wife.
