GLEN WILLIAMS

Visit Former Residents During Motor Trip East

Mr. and Mrs. William Young and family returned on Sunday, August 16th from a two week motor trip east, as far as Sydney, Nova Scotia.

They visited in Halifax with Mr. Young's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Young and his brother Frank, seeing as well his sister Mrs. S. Inkpen and another sister, Mrs. F. Cluett of Pouch Cove, Nfld. who was in Halifax at the same time.

At Montreal they stopped for a day with another brother Bert Young and his family, and another brother Gordon who was at one time a Glen resident. They renewed acquaintances with other former residents, the Arenbergs in Halifax who used to live in the Young's apartment in the Glen and at Brighton with the Amos family, formerly of Terra Cotta. At Dickinson's Landing they visited a sister-in-law, Mrs. Fred Young and her two daughters.

Penny and Peter Norton entertained their young friends at a corn roast prior to school opening. Among their guests were Betty and Barbara Avery, Maureen Hepburn, Susan Canham, Edith and Isobel Beaumont, Louise Kidd, Patsy Norton, Janey Bouskill, Gordon Hancock, Billy Lucas and Dennis Hancock.

JUNIOR FARMERS AT LAKE SIMCOE CAMP

What a heat wave we had. By the time you are reading this I hope it will be a lot cooler! (It isn't.—Ed.)

Jean Bird, Marlon Bird, Bill Wilson and Joan Wrigglesworth from Hornby have been spending last week up at Camp Ahfhunyoong on Lake Simcoe as delegates from the Junior Farmers.

Harvest is nearly all cleaned up and exhibition time is here again. Fall is getting closer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nurse enjoyed a week's motoring around Ottawa, Algonquin Park and other places.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Barnes and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Twiss and sons Charles and Douglas at Campbellville.

Mr. and Mrs. James Carney, Sandra and Doreen have been holidaying at Port Elgin.

Mrs. Howard Wrigglesworth and sons Douglas and Robert of Georgetown were welcome visitors at the church service on Sunday morning and afterwards with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wrigglesworth at their home.

Recent visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wilson and the boys were Douglas and Donald Brooks from Hamilton and little Miss Carol Mills from Milton.

LIMEHOUSE

Mr. and Mrs. Appleyard Honoured by Friends

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Dick Appleyard were honoured guests at Limehouse Memorial Hall on Tuesday evening when friends of the communities of Limehouse and Silverwood gathered for presentations to them. A. C. Patterson acted as chairman for a short programme in which Anna Spitzer, Mrs. A. Norton and Rev. A. Calder sang accompanied by Mrs. J. Roughley and Mrs. H. Norton. Neil Benton played a piano solo, and little Mabel Greig did a Scottish dance.

Mr. Ern Batkin expressed the good wishes of the farm forum and presented Dick and Margaret with a Kroehler platform rocker and cushion on behalf of that group. Neil Benton read a short address on behalf of Limehouse community and they were presented with a step end table, a large mirror, framed picture and two satin cushions. The young couple each expressed thanks and Pat led in cheering. Lunch followed the National Anthem.

THREE POLIO CASES M.O.H. REPORT SHOWS

Dr. Bull, Medical Officer of Health for Halton County, states that three new cases of Polio were reported last week. One of these was in a young adult in Burlington and the other two are in 9 and 14 year old boys from Mississauga Township.

to the present this year in Halton County, although larger than last year, is not above average. There have been no fatalities reported this year. It is hoped that the approach of cooler weather will result in a decrease in the number of cases.
