Wilson-Brown Wedding
In Presbyterian Church

Pink and white gladioli formed the setting for the marriage in Norval Presbyterian Church on August 29th of Ethel Florence Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brown, Norval, and George Clayton Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wilson, of Georgetown, Rev. G. Lockhart Royal officiated. The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a floor-length gown of satin and Chantilly lace. The fitted bodice had a sweetheart neckline and long pointed sleeves. The full skirt had lace panels and a lace train. Her fingertip veil was held by a crown of sequins and seed pearls. She carried a cascade of red roses and stephanotis. The matron of honour, Mrs. Donald Ismond, sister of the bride, was gowned in Nile green net over taffeta with a matching halo of net and flowers. She carried a bouquet of pink miniature gladioli. Miss Bernice Wilson, sister of the groom, wore a similar gown of orchid and carried yellow gladioli.

Donna Jean Ismond, niece of the bride, was flower girl in a dress of maize net over taffeta and carried mauve miniature gladioli. Frank Wilson, brother of the groom, was groomsman, and the ushers were Donald Ismond and Earl Wilson, cousin of the groom.

Mrs. Oliver Hunter played the wedding music and Mrs. G. L. Royal soloist, sang "O Perfect Love," before the ceremony and "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register.

At the reception which followed in the church parlours, the bride's mother received in a dress of navy crepe and lace with wine accessories, and a corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother assisted in a midnight blue dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Guests were present from London, Toronto, Acton, Norval and Georgetown, Palermo, Streetsville, Bolton, Galt, Guelph, Erin, Milton, Brampton, university of his choice in England. Earl Wilson, cousin of the groom, town.

Following the reception, the couple left on a trip to northern and eastern Ontario. For travelling the bride chose a grey suit with pink accessories. On their return, they will reside on the groom's farm, R. R. 3, Georgetown.

Institute Members Hear
Details of ACWW Meet

Members attending the opening fall meeting of Georgetown Women's Institute heard some interesting comments on the ACWW conference in Toronto, brought by the county president, Mrs. J. L. Ellerby, Limehouse.

Mrs. S. Robin was hostess for the meeting at her home on Guelph St. Theme of the meeting was Citizenship and Education, convened by Mrs. Dan Livingstone.

Mrs. Ellerby touched on highlights of the world conference of ladies in her remarks. She told of meeting some of the visitors—Lady Binnie at a tea in Hamilton; and many other delegates from abroad at a reception at Palermo, as well as one of the delegates who had been a visitor at Limehouse.

She reported many flattering comments about Canada and the way the Canadian people had received the guests from other countries.

The W.I. president, Mrs. Frank Petch was appointed a delegate to the area convention in Guelph, the latter part of the month.

Chief item of business was the naming of committees to arrange displays for fall fairs in Georgetown and Acton. Mrs. Harry Bailey and Mrs. Stanley Gowland were put in charge of this activity.

Roll Call — An Old School Verse — was well responded to, bringing many memories to those whose school days are behind them.
