Health Clinic Work Told by Unit Nurse

The first fall meeting of the Council of Strathmore Chapter, IOOE, took the form of a corn roast and salt supper at the home of Mrs. Denny Charles, on Monday evening.

Following supper, the regent Miss Jean Mackenzie presided at the business meeting. Guest of honour was Miss Joyce Nevitt, public health nurse in Georgetown district, who gave a short talk on the work of the Health Clinics held in the Legion Hall twice a month. In this work, members of the IOOE volunteer to assist the doctor and nurses. Miss Nevitt stressed the importance of such aid and requested that as many members as possible volunteer to help this vital public service. Mrs. Edwin Wilson is the convenor for the Health Clinics.

The Chapter will undertake a tag day for the blind and also operate a booth for the blind at Georgetown Fair, with Mrs. Percy Leslie in charge of arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Robert Jones.

Mrs. Sam Mackenzie presented a cup and saucer, on behalf of the Chapter, to Mrs. Robert Nicol of Toronto. Mrs. Nicol was social convenor of the chapter before moving to Toronto in the summer.

Three new members were welcomed into the chapter by the Regent: Mrs. Gordon Kidney, Mrs. G. Lockhart Royal, Norval and Mrs. Cecil Davidson.

The Regent also entertained the Chapter with a vivid account of the Coronation festivities and parade which she attended in person in the spring. Colour photographs of her trip were enjoyed.

Before closing, cakes and ginger ale were served by the social committee for the evening, which comprised Misses Jean and Marjorie Mackenzie, Mrs. Edwin Hall, Mrs. Bert Gilmer, Mrs. Hilda Erwin, Mrs. Howard Wrigglesworth, Mrs. Charles Wilson, and the hostess, Mrs. Denny Charles.

TRAMPLED BY BULL INJURIES NOT SERIOUS

Badly bruised, but not seriously injured, John Purzil is in Guelph General Hospital for observation this week.

An employee at Dr. Paul Beer's farm, he was mauled by a bull on Monday. Mr. Purzil was walking the bull from an exercise pen to the barn when the animal became frightened by an oil truck in the yard. He was knocked down and pushed about, but it is not believed that he has more than superficial injuries.
