Donald McLaughlin Weds at Ithaca, N.Y.

The marriage of Miss Ann Morath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Guenter of Ithaca, N.Y. to Donald Christie McLaughlin son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. McLaughlin of Georgetown took place at one p.m. Saturday, September 12, in Ithaca, New York. Rt. Rev. Msgr. William Byrne performed the ceremony.

Baskets of white gladiolus and delphiniums with a background of palms were in the Chancel and white satin ribbons were used as pew markers.
Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a period gown of white velvet styled with a molded bodice and collar and long tapered sleeves trimmed with applique lace set with seed pearls and paillettes; the bouffant skirt terminated in a cathedral length train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was caught to a sculptured cap of Chantilly lace, embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a white pearl prayerbook topped with a white orchid and streamers of white satin ribbon knotted with stephanotis and variegated ivy.

Miss Barbara Rolling of Rome, N.Y. was maid of honour. She wore a gown of Empire design with the bodice and jacket of turquoise velvet and the full sweeping skirt of turquoise Pakistan silk. The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Jean Farley of Syracuse, N.Y., Miss Judy McLaughlin, the bridegroom's sister, and Miss Helen Kiely of Ithaca. Their gowns were of turquoise tissue taffeta fashioned with pleated velvet bodices and fichus above long full skirts. All the attendants wore small contour hats of turquoise velvet leaves and carried cascade bouquets of light pink gladiolus and demure roses with turquoise carnations. Deborah Speno was the flower girl and Stephan and Charles Speno were the ring bearers. They are triplets, sons and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Speno of Ithaca, N.Y.

James F. McLaughlin of Montreal, Quebec, was best man for his brother and the ushers were Charles McClure of Youngstown, Ohio, Jerry Miller of Canton, Ohio, David Berg of Clairton, Pa., William Lawrence of Braughton and Michael Ballentine of Toronto.

After the reception at the Hotel Ithaca the couple left by plane for Bermuda.
Mrs. McLaughlin was graduated from Ithaca High School and from Stephens College. She attended Syracuse University and Nazareth College.

The bridegroom attended St. Andrew's College and was graduated from the College of Agriculture at Cornell University where he was a member of Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity. He is associated with Canada Packers in Toronto.

HORNBY

Bishop Officiates As Eleven Confirmed

A class of 11 young Anglicans were confirmed at a service, in St. Stephen's Church, Hornby, on Sunday, September 13th when Rt. Rev. Walter Bagnall, Bishop of Niagara, officiated at a special service in the church.

After the service, the bishop dedicated two gifts to the church, flower vases given by the children of William George Cowan and Elizabeth Ann Cowan, in memory of them, and an alms basin in memory of Hannah Noble, presented by her son, Rev. Norman Noble, Caledon East.

Rev. Charles J. Burton of Buffalo, who is a brother-in-law of the rector, Rev. J. E. Maxwell, acted as bishop's chaplain during the service. Included in the confirmation class were Nancy Whites Norval, Ruby Tennant and Geri Smith, Stewarttown, and Grant Royce, Gordon Brain, Raymond Archer, Thomas Hunter, John Harrop, Marie Harrop, Carole Hunter, and Heather Clayton, Hornby.

MRS. PAUL HOSTESS LOCAL COUNCIL MEETS

The September meeting of the Local Council of Women, held at the country home of Mrs. R. T. Paul was an enjoyable affair.

Luncheon was followed by a stroll through the woods and later Mrs. J. W. Kerr presided at a business meeting. Correspondence from head office explained the reason why household appliances cost so much more in Canada than in the United States.

Mrs. J. B. Mackenzie will be hostess for the October meeting.

SHOWERS AT DURHAM FOR NEWLYWEDS

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Harrington were tendered a community shower in Durham Community Centre on Friday by friends of the bride, whose home is near Durham.

Miscellaneous gifts were presented to the couple, as well as a special presentation of aluminumware from the "charivaree" group. Dancing and lunch were part of the evening's entertainment.

Those from town who attended were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orbey Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Norton, and the groom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Capps of Brampton.
