Marshall-Hunter Wedding Norval Presbyterian Church

Standards of white gladiol and fern decorated Norval Presbyterian Church on September 12th for the three o'clock wedding of Marion Gertrude Hunter and Colin Robert Marshall.

Rev. G. Lockhart Royal officiated and John Lindley, a cousin of the groom sang O Perfect Love before the ceremony and I'll Walk Beside You during the signing of the register. Mrs. Oliver Hunter was organist. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hunter, R. R. 2, Norval, and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marshall, R. R. 4, Milton.

The bride was gowned in glowing white slipper satin. The bodice was fashioned with a net yoke, forming a high round neck accented with white scroll braiding. The long sheath sleeves were set in and pointed at the wrists. A matching braided scroll front panel was featured in the full skirt, which fell in folded pleats from a nipped-in waistline, ending in a chapel train. The bride wore an illusion veil, fingertip length, and carried a cascade of red roses and white stephanotis. Eileen Hunter was maid of honor for her sister. She wore moss green and carried a nosegay of white and green carnations. The shirred velvet bodices of their gowns extended into points below the waistline, ending in tulle over taffeta skirts. They wore matching velvet boleros. Ann Doane, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a gold taffeta dress with hoop skirt and puff sleeves and a matching headband. She carried a nosegay of white and green carnations.

Mr. Albert Hunter gave his daughter in marriage. Earl Ford, Milton, was groomsmen and ushers were Clarence Ford and James Doane.

Receiving afterwards at the Yellow Briar Inn, the bride's mother wore mulberry crepe with lace inserts, gold accessories and a corsage of bronze poms. The groom's mother wore pale blue crepe with a lace jacket, black accessories and a corsage of tallsmen roses.

Leaving on a honeymoon trip in southwestern Ontario and Detroit, the bride wore a grey wool suit, red and black accessories and a corsage of red roses. They will live on the groom's farm, R. R. 4, Milton.
