—Over 12,000 sightless Canadians benefitted from the operations of concessions arranged by The Canadian National Institute for the Blind — and that's only one of their many services. The Institute needs money now to carry on this work of rehabilitation. Will you please support the IODE Tag Day in Georgetown to be held on Saturday, October 3rd?

Arts and Crafts Plan Annual Exhibit, Sale

Plans are already underway for the annual Arts and Crafts exhibit and sale, which this year is slated for late November at the Legion Hall.
At last Thursday's meeting of the group, at the home of Mrs. Denney Charles, committee appointments were made. Three additional members were added to Mrs. Cyril Brandford's display committee, Dorothy Stone, Mrs. Leonard Bell and Mrs. Wesley Wolfe. Acton, while Mrs. Leslie Clark was named to head a new publicity committee. Mrs. A. F. Bragg-Smith is convener of the tea room, and committee members are Mrs. R. R. Corbett, Mrs. S. W. Orr, Mrs. J. A. Early, Mrs. Harry Adams, and Mrs. S. Matheson, Caledon.
Mrs. Brandford reported that articles made by local people will be on sale at the Canadian Handicraft Guild Shop in Toronto from Sept. 28 to October 3, Georgetown Arts & Crafts being the first such group to avail itself of the facilities offered by the shop for an entire week.
Mrs. Wesley Healy, Acton, said that she and Mr. Richard Licata had been appointed to the planning committee for Halton Rural night school at a meeting in Milton the previous day and gave details of a change in set-up which will allow three courses to be offered in Georgetown and three in Acton this winter. She feels that should the demand be great, more courses than this might be made available. The group decided to take over advertising the courses, so Georgetown will know what is possible here.
A course in glove making was announced by Mrs. Wallace Thompson. Mrs. Ern Batkin was congratulated on her first prize weaving exhibit at the CNE. This linen luncheon set will be included in a handicraft display at the Toronto Art Gallery.
Mrs. Arthur Beaumont and Mrs. W. C. Reynolds poured tea, and tea room assistants were Mrs. John Glynn, Mrs. Bert Gilmer, Wilma Stull, Mrs. Jesse Wyatt, Mrs. Wallace Thompson and Mrs. J. P. Girvan.

GORDON GRAYDON, one of Canada's best known parliamentarians, who represented Peel County at Ottawa for several terms, died Saturday in a Toronto hospital.

MACKENZIE NEWS

Perhaps we are lucky to be merely freezing in September, rather than having our roofs blown off by the equinoctial gales.
Maybe all your present cupboard needs is a new colourful counter top. We have Sandran Vinyl topping, 27 inches wide at 65c per running foot. It comes in grey, red or green frost pattern and yellow gingham. It is resistant to heat and stains; easy to apply and easy to keep. For 8 feet, 27 inches wide the cost would be $5.20. We also have arborite in numerous colours and patterns at 65c per square ft.
It's good weather for gardening, golfing and attending Fall Fairs.
