CARDS OF THANKS

BREEN — I would like to thank all my friends and neighbours who were so kind in sending the flowers, fruit and cards during my stay in hospital and since returning home — Ronald Breen.

DAVIS — I wish to thank all my neighbours and friends, and members of Branch 120, Canadian Legion, for their kind thoughts and best wishes extended during my stay in Western Hospital, Toronto, and since my return home. — Charles T. E. Davis.

NOLAN — Mrs. Dorothy Nolan wishes to thank the girls at the Alliance, union members, Thursday Thimble Club and all who sent gifts and cards during her illness in hospital.

NORTON — Mrs. Joe Norton, Glen Williams, expresses her sincere thanks to friends who so kindly remembered her with flowers, fruit, cards and other remembrances while a patient in Guelph General Hospital and since returning home, especially thanking the pals at Smith and Stone.

PALMER — In the midst of my sorrow, I express heartfelt thanks and appreciation to relatives and friends for kindness and sympathy shown in the loss of a beloved son, Thomas Arthur Palmer. I especially wish to thank Rev. Alex J. Calder for his consoling words, all those who sent floral offerings, the pall-bearers and flowers bearers. A special thanks to the neighbours for their kindness — Mrs. A. G. Palmer.

SPENCE — Mrs. W. Spence wishes to thank St. John's Church and W.A., Verdun Rebekah Lodge, and the Canadian Legion for beautiful flowers and gifts, and all those who sent lovely cards while I was a patient in Guelph General Hospital.

FATHER DIES IN KITCHENER

The funeral was held in Kitchener on Friday for Francis S. Querin, father of Mrs. Garfield McGillvray, who died the previous Tuesday following a lengthy illness. Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Deceased was born and later farmed for many years in Mornington Township, Perth County, working at the J. M. Schneider plant in Kitchener after retiring from the farm. Surviving are two daughters and four sons. His wife predeceased him two years ago.

NORVAL

Presentations, Showers For Mrs. Colin Marshall

Prior to her recent marriage to Colin Marshall, Marion Hunter was honoured at several showers and presentations.

Many lovely gifts were presented by ladies of Norval Presbyterian Church at a shower which was preceded by a musical program, and at the same event her Sunday School class gave her a copper jardiniere.

Miss Betty McClure was hostess at a shower at which the church choir presented the bride-elect with a lace tablecloth. Fellow employees at the A. V. Roe Company presented her with cornflower crystal.

The neighbourhood ladies had an evening shower at the home of Mrs. William Graham, with an interesting program of games preceding the opening of the gifts. On September 28th, Pinegrove School Section held a presentation for Mr. and Mrs. Marshall. After playing euchre, Mr. Currie presented the couple with two blondewood end tables and two figurines. Afterwards lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Clifford Hunter, Mrs. Allan Harrop, Mrs. Mac Alexander, and Mrs. Wellington Stringer.
