Sanderson-Melanson Wedding on Saturday

Two Smith & Stone employees were married on Saturday at the United Church parsonage. Rev. John M. Smith officiated at the marriage of Madeline (Madge) Melanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Melanson and Donald Gordon Sanderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sanderson.

The bride wore a lilac nylon ballerina dress, with nylon net over taffeta, navy accessories and carried a bouquet of yellow roses. The groom's brother-in-law, Emmett O'Flaherty was groomsman and the groom's sister, Mrs. Emmett O'Flaherty was bridesmaid, wearing a two-piece navy blue gabardine suit with navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Among those who attended the wedding were the parents of bride and groom, Miss Marjorie Berry, Montreal, Misses Lillian Askin and Kathleen Wareing, John Doherty and Arthur Melanson. At a reception later at 90 Guelph Street, other friends and relatives were present, including the grandparents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hiltson, of Brampton.

The bride's mother received, wearing a two-piece gabardine and wine suit, black accessories and corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother wore a grey two-piece suit and yellow rose corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson will live at 24 Victoria Crescent, Georgetown.

SONG MIMICKED IN UYP GAMES

At Monday's meeting, St. John's UYP had a singsong to open their meeting, then Bev Hyde gave a talk on "The World-Wide Church of Today." Two new members were welcomed, Pat Richardson and Betty Ann Henderson.

During the recreation period afterwards, two teams were chosen and one side mimicked a song while the others guessed the title. The outstanding performance of the night was Jim Sunnucks acting out "Jimmy Cracked Corn." Registration for the UYP convention at Simcoe October 23-25 were taken. The club will decorate the church for Thanksgiving, and the food will later be sent to some worthy mission.

TELLS FARM CLUB OAC OPPORTUNITIES

Rev. W. A. Young, chaplain of the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph, told members of Terra Cotta Farmers Club of the opportunities which exist for young people at this famous educational institution when he spoke at Monday's meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Frazer.

Mr. Young reviewed the history of the college, and also told something of the experimental work being carried on in farm research.

He was introduced by president Wilfrid Leslie. Vocal duets by Barbara Carney and Jean Newhouse were also included on the program which had been arranged by Mrs. Alex Dolson and Mrs. Owens Macdonald.

Proceeding the meeting, the ladies met under the presidency of Mrs. Jack McDonald, with their roll call being something pertaining to Thanksgiving. Mrs. Fraser Macdonald demonstrated how dried leaves, flowers and weeds can be combined to make attractive autumn table centres.

J. A. Weall, lecturer in horticulture at the OAC will speak to the club at their next meeting when Mr. and Mrs. Art McKane are hosts.

LIMEHOUSE WELCOME THREE NEW MEMBERS TO CHURCH

Three new communicants were welcomed into Limehouse Presbyterian Church membership on Sunday. They were Mrs. Dick Appleyard, Mrs. E. Sanford, and Mr. Wm. Mitchell. Muriel Appleyard sang "God Hath Not Promised" during the offering.

Recent visitors:
Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bowden of Agincourt and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Morrow of Toronto with Mrs. R. Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster of Baden with the James Nobles
Miss Pearl Scott, Mrs. H. Scott and Patsy with the Mitchells.
Mr. and Mrs. G. Sinclair of Georgetown with the A. C. Patterson's
The J. A. Smethursts of Islington with his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Lobb of Rouge Hill and friends of Oshawa, with Mr. and Mrs. M. Crook.

The W.I. met at the home of Mrs. P. Spitzer on Thursday evening when Mrs. Ellerby, county president was guest speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kirkpatrick and children visited her mother, Mrs. Turner at Tullamore on Sunday.

Mr. Ted Leslie returned Saturday from a trip west which took him as far as Lake Louise.

Trousseau Tea, Showers Precede Ritchie Wedding

On the Wednesday preceding her marriage to Bruce Lindsay, Miss Marlon Ritchie was tendered a trousseau tea by her mother, Mrs. John Ritchie. Mrs. Isobel Cleave, and the bride-elect's sister, Mrs. Charles McMenemy, Hamilton, poured tea.

Earlier, Miss Ritchie had been guest of honour at several events, including a miscellaneous shower at her home tendered by members of the Lindsay and Ritchie families and a kitchen shower which members of the Dominion Seed House staff held at the home of Mrs. William Anderson. Miss Mary Lindsay was hostess at a miscellaneous shower. Knox Church Sunday School teachers met at the home of Mrs. Audrey Scott and presented her with a carnival set of dishes, and the choir, at the home of Miss Ruth Brown, gave her a hampered aluminum bread tray and relish dish. A featherweight iron was a present from fellow members of the Dominion Seed office staff.

GLEN WILLIAMS TELLS CHURCH CLUB OF CORONATION TRIP

On Wednesday, the Willing Helpers of the Glen United Church had a social evening, the highlight of which was a coronation talk given by Miss Jean Mackenzie, who witnessed the procession in England.

A musical programme included a piano solo by Jean Gamble, guitar selections by Dennis Hancock, a duet by Maralyn Felker and Mrs. John Wagstaffe, violin solo by Walter Dixon and piano accordion solo by Tom Singer.

Miss Mackenzie told of the thrill of seeing the coronation ceremonies and showed pictures she had taken during her trip. A sing-song and lunch served by the ladies group closed the evening.

Congratulations to Doug Starret on his winnings at the fair on Saturday. Three 1sts and champion junior showman.

HERE'S ADVICE FOR HUNTING NOVICES

A reader tells us that in England a traditional piece of doggerel entitled "A Father's Advice" is usually handed from father to son before he is allowed to join a shooting party. King George V insisted that all his sons memorize this before allowing them to handle a gun.

With the advent of the hunting season, it is particularly timely.

If a sportsman true you'd be,
Listen carefully to me,
Never, never let your gun,
Pointed be at any one;
That it might unloaded be,
Matters not the least to me,
You may hit or you may miss,
But at all times think of this:
All the game birds ever bred
Won't repay for one man dead.

TAG DAY RAISES $260 FOR LEAGUE

Some $260 was raised for the Navy League when members of the Legion W.A. organized a tag day a week ago Saturday for this yearly fund appeal.

Mrs. Alex Taylor, W.A. president was in charge of arrangements and several members of the organization were assisted by a group of young people as taggers. These included Mrs. Jack Harrison, Mrs. J. Kemshedd, Mrs. C. E. Stacey, Mrs. Jim Sargent, Mrs. William Maybanks, Mrs. Tom Warnes, Charlene Day, Betty Carey, E. Gilchrist, Betty McGuigan, Klaartje VanderVoort, Elaine King, Ruth McClements, Barbara Bowman, David Smith, Betty Bonfield, Barbara May Allen, Ruth Macdonald, Lynda Rayner, David Hiddleston, June Allen, Sharon Sweezie, Jean Engleby and Mrs. Jack Cuthbert.
