

OMAGH HONOURS FOUR NEWLYWED COUPLES

Four recent bridal couples were presented with gifts by the Omagh community at a social evening on Thursday in Omagh schoolhouse. Guest of honour were Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Colin Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Laing and Mr. and Mrs. Morley Peacock, Toronto. They each received a Kroehler hostess chair, hassock and smoker stand. Clifford Beatty was chairman for the evening, which included a game of cards, with dancing later to the Howden and Sinclair Orchestra.

WHAT COUNCIL DID LEAVE RENT DECISION FOR 1954 COUNCIL

While provincial rent control will end next March, a municipality may continue this by establishing a by-law of its own. Informed of this at Monday's meeting, the town council decided to file the letter for consideration by the 1954 council. Georgetown is one of several towns in the Toronto metropolitan area which voted to keep rent controls in force when restrictions were eased last year. Up to the present, administration has been from the central Ontario office which will be abolished in March.

220 New Houses in Social and Personal Two Subdivisions

A total of 220 new houses will be built in Georgetown, according to spokesmen for two large companies which have announced subdivisions of two large local properties. Houses are already under construction in Hewson Manor, across from the Smith & Stone plant on land formerly owned by Tom Hewson, and in Sunbeam Heights, at the western highway approach to town on the old Cedarvale Farm property which was purchased from Ed Tyers.

Mr. Ernest Bedell, of Detroit, Michigan is visiting in town with Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNally.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Campbell of Weston were visitors yesterday with Mr. and Mrs. Garfield McGilvray.

Guests from Newmarket on Fair Day with Mr. and Mrs. George Brandford, were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dobbie, Newmarket.

Bud Bishop, who has been in Toronto General Hospital for a month, recuperating after a disc operation returned home last week.

A patient in Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, since August, John Penrice, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Penrice, returned home last week-end.

Will Hills, former Prudential insurance man in town, who now is with the company in Port Arthur, renewed acquaintances during a visit to town this week.

Ross Preston, who has been working in Kitimat, B.C. is home for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Preston, King Street. With him is a chum, John Simids, also of Kitimat.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Burt attended the 60th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William Gambell in Acton on Sunday. Mr. Gambell is a member of an old Georgetown family, his mother having been a Kennedy.

Bill Boal, assistant manager of the Saville Theatre, Montreal, who formerly managed the Roxy here, was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Alex Calder for a few days this week. He was, groomsman at the Lindsay-Ritchie wedding on Saturday.

Janice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Mino, had a party on Wednesday to celebrate her sixth birthday. Guests were Gail and George Stigger, Carolyn Biehn, Sharon Coburn, Dale McCartney, Gary Bowers, and her cousins, Diane Hill, Bronda, Lorraine and Irene Hawes.

Last Friday, Susan Coburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Coburn was six, and entertained at a party at her home on King Street. Her guests were Bobby and David McMenemy, Janice Mino, Gail Stigger, Mary Harlow, Marlene Sanderson, Darlene Ledwidge and Dale McCartney.

Brian Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hill, celebrated his ninth birthday on Monday, September 28 at his home on Charles Street. His little chums invited to his party were Monty Hyde, Keith Wood, David Rawson, Paul Marko and Gery Renwick.

Requested by the public school board to substitute election of members by general vote rather than wards, council will submit the question to ratepayers in the December election.

By a technicality, the school board was overlooked when a prior vote was taken to elect council by general vote, and adoption of a complete general vote system would establish uniform elections, if the vote carried.

RESULTS ANNOUNCED FOR DRESSED HOGS

Results received today in the T. Eaton Special for dressed bacon hogs at Georgetown Fair, name John Bradley, Hornby, for champion carcass, and Andrew McClure, R. R. 2, Brampton, reserve carcass.

The six top placings among the seven entries received were: 1st, John Bradley; 2nd, Wilfred Harding, Limehouse; 3rd and 4th, Andrew McClure; 5th, Lloyd McEnery, Limehouse; 6th, Angus McNabb, R. R. 2, Georgetown.

In Hewson Heights there will be a choice of 3 bedroom bungalows and 4 bedroom 1 1/2 storey homes on the 100 lots which the subdivision provides.

Sunbeam Heights will have 120 brick bungalows, all with 6 rooms. Both groups of houses will sell around the $10,000 mark and both have been assured of water and sewerage service by the town council.

Hugh F. Johnston of T. S. H. Giles Real Estate, Oakville, is making arrangements for the sale of the Sunbeam Heights houses.

"Three sample houses are now ready and another 12 homes will be started immediately and be ready for occupancy, we hope, by Christmas," he states.

"This is part of an extensive housing program now in progress at Oshawa, Don Mills, Weston and Oakville by Sunbeam Construction and associated companies for which Giles Real Estate are exclusive selling agents."

Jack Walford and Mr. E. Irvine, spokesmen for the Hewson Manor homes which will be built by Toronto contractor Finlay Munro, also report three sample homes which will be open for inspection on Temple Road near the new subdivision.

WINS $100 BOND IN LUCKY DRAW

Winner of a $100 bond offered as a prize in the Girls' Pipe Band lucky draw was Ted Arnold.

Mr. Arnold's ticket was picked when the draw was made at Georgetown Fair on Saturday.

ODD EGG

An odd shaped hen's egg brought to the office today by Billy Wilson is causing some comment among people passing the Herald window. The egg is perfectly round and about half the size of a golf ball.

SCHOOL NURSE TALKS HOME & SCHOOL MEET

Miss Joyce Nevitt, who is in charge of nursing work for Halton Health Unit in this area, explained details of her job to members of the Home & School Association at Monday's meeting in Wrigglesworth School. Miss Nevitt, who was introduced by Principal William Kinrade, stressed the importance of cooperation between parents and the unit, and outlined her duties from prenatal care to maturity. A question period followed.

Mrs. Ross Dupcan was chairman, and entertainment included songs by Thomas Warnes, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. James F. Evans. Refreshments were served afterwards.
