port to St. John's Church on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Wear your uniform.

The annual Boy Scout Apple Day will be held on Saturday, Oct. 24th. We solicit the same whole-hearted support of the citizens of Georgetown and vicinity as we have received in former years.

It is better to build boys than to mend men.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Boy Scouts met in St. John's S.S. room on Monday evening.

Meet your Cub and Scout leaders — Little Beaver Cubs: Don Livingstone and Ron Ritchie; Eagle Cubs: Fred Masterman, John Whitney; Leaping Wolf Cubs: Bill Hardman, Bill Whitney; Boy Scouts: Reg. Broomhead, William Kinrade, Ron Hulme, Blake Inglis; Badge clerk, Robert Darou.

Buy an apple on Boy Scout Apple Day. Your support encourages the boys and their leaders to continue the scouting program in Georgetown.

Guitar, Violin Students Give Thursday Concert

Several music pupils of the Peel Conservatory of Music appeared in a musical evening on Thursday in the Oddfellows Hall here.

Groups from Orangeville, Mimico and Toronto augmented the local young people who have been taking guitar and violin lessons from Mr. Peel for some time. Among local pupils who played the guitar were Rhoda Dixon, Pearl Louth, John Bourzman, Max Harris, Donald and Robert Murray, Philip Rau, Gary Renwick, Kathleen Roshier, Linda White, Joan Craig, Bob Hooper, Paul Marshall, Agnes Nelson, J. D. Cameron, George Gibson, and Muriel Hill. Those playing the violin were Tommy Marshall, Dicky Page and Bernard Enticknapp.

Announce Night School Courses in Three Towns

The announcements for the fourth annual County Night School are now in the mail. These have been sent to all rural box holders in the county. In addition, a goodly supply have been made available for the urban residents of Acton, Georgetown and Milton. In the event your copy went astray, an application or enrolment form will be found elsewhere in this issue.

At total of 24 courses are offered — six of these to be held in Acton and Georgetown, and the balance in Milton. The courses open on Tuesday, November 17th, and will cover a period of twelve Tuesday nights, four previous to Christmas and eight after the new year.

The fee for all courses with the exception of the Welding Course at Milton and the Metalcraft at Georgetown is $3.00 per person. In the Welding class at Milton, and Metalcraft at Georgetown, because of extra costs involved, the fee has been set at $10.00 or thereabouts.

All applications must be sent forward to the Milton Office of the Ontario Department of Agriculture. Applications received by October 31st will determine the courses to be held, and furthermore, all individuals whose applications are in by that date will have an equal opportunity of securing the course of their first choice.
