GLEN WILLIAMS

PORT CREDIT MOVE FOR RIGGS FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Riggs and family, residents of Glen Williams for the past three years, have moved to a new home in Port Credit.

While here, Mrs. Riggs took an active part in church and Sunday School work at St. Alban's, being vice president of the ladies' guild and a teacher in the Sunday School. Prior to leaving, a farewell party was held by guild members at the home of Mrs. Arthur Beaumont and a presentation was made Sunday morning by the school in appreciation of her work.

Mrs. Lloyd Foster has her mother, Mrs. Elsie Hancock, formerly of Toronto, now living with her at her home. Mrs. Hancock recently returned from a year's visit with family relations in Northampton, England. Mr. and Mrs. Foster are building a new house in Georgetown at the corner of Maple Avenue and the 9th Line and will be moving there next year.

—Euchre and dance in Stewarttown Hall, Wednesday, October 28th, at 8.30, sponsored by Acton Junior Farmers, proceeds for hockey equipment. Doris Hulls Orchestra. Admission 50c.

—First "formal" of the season in the Rose Room this Friday. Hamilton Chapter, Prisoners of War Association, invite you to dance to the music of Harold Wright's Orchestra from Galt. Couple $2.00, dress optional. Dancing 9 to 1.

—Christmas shopping will be easy if you visit the Rebekah Bazaar, Friday, November 6th in the Oddfellows Hall, commencing at 3 p.m. Home baking, fancy work, flowers, candy, novelties, fish pond, touch and take table. Supper 75c. served from 4 to 7. Everyone is welcome.

HELP . . .

Help the children win prizes for their school and class. Help the Home and School in its work for the children in the home, school and community. Help yourself to some fine entertainment. Buy a ticket from the school children to see "It Grows On Trees" starring Irene Dunne, showing at 7.30 and 9.30 p.m. on Thurs., November 12th.

MACKENZIE NEWS

If you'd like to have as much fun as working a crossword puzzle with more permanent results, put plastic tile on your bathroom.

Very lovely colour schemes can be worked out with contrasting or matching bases and border. It comes at 59c per square foot or 63c per tile in plain or pearl tones, for a 4"x4" tile.

See you eating an apple on Saturday. It's our turn to do the Boy Scouts a good turn.
