

Strong Organization For "Kid Hockey"

Last Sunday afternoon a meeting was held by the Branch, 120, Canadian Legion hockey committee to set up an organization for the purpose of organizing "kid hockey" in Georgetown. The meeting was well attended and an election of officers resulted as follows:

Chairman: Bud James; Secretary, Marshall Timbers; Treasurer, Harvey Garvin. The executive committee remains the same as in other years, with the right of the committee to add to it as it sees fit. Tom Beckett is in charge of time-keepers and Roy "Bungy" Ward chief referee. Frank Connelly has promised to arrange to keep records of statistics on goals scored, and see that the Herald gets them for publication. Gord King volunteered to run a school for goal-keepers. These latter two points are something that have been lacking in past years.

The president of the Legion, the group sponsoring the "kid" hockey, Les Clark, along with most of the men present, felt that the parents of the boys were not showing enough interest, and their attendance at the odd Saturday morning game would boost the lads' morale 100 per cent. There is nothing like a parent on hand to help the kids really go to town. Suggestions were asked to help create some interest before the season starts.

It was suggested that a parents' night be held before the season, and all parents (and interested adults invited to attend. Lunch will be provided, the lads can register that night for the season, a film will be shown, and it is hoped to have a prominent hockey star, past or present, on hand. All interested adults, whether parents or not are urged to attend.

Sweaters with the NHL colours are being purchased for the league and are hoped to be on display that evening. The Legion will sponsor this type of hockey, not only in OMHA, but in little NHL too, this year, as well as having a midget and bantam team.

Ages will be as in other years, from 8 to 16, and it is urged that any citizen who can spare the odd Saturday morning to help out, contact the committee.

ASHGROVE

Early Ashgrove History Recalled at Institute

The Women's Institute met for the October meeting on the 20th at the home of Mrs. Ernie Tindale with thirty members, five visitors and a number of children present. In the absence of the president, Mrs. W. Stringer, the first vice, Mrs. Wilfrid Bird took charge and opened with the ode and Lord's Prayer. Roll Call was well answered with "a verse from your school reader." Mrs. Leslie Giffen gave the highlights of the district directors meeting she had attended, $10 was voted for food to Asia, Thank You notes were read from the sick. Much discussion over the lunches and booth for the ploughing match, after which Mrs. Harvey Nurse, who was in charge of the program called on Mrs. Herb Reid for selections on her accord-ion. The motto "He that knoweth only his generation remains a child" was well given by Mrs. Francis Thompson. Mrs. Dick then told some very interesting items of Ashgrove in 1857 when Mr. George Cooke owned a saw-mill, also some names of the families who lived on the different farms and she ended her talk by reading a wedding of

GOOD PRICES AT MAPLE SALE

The annual consignment sale of the Maple Cattle Breeders realized an average of $284.00 at the Hays Arena on Tuesday of last week. Some fifty females were sold with a top of $635 for a four year old consigned by V. J. Lawrence of Oakville, R. R. No. 2. The second high of $610 went to Percy Kitching of Moffat for a two year old heifer with calf at foot.

The average price, while some $100.00 lower than one year ago was very gratifying considering the present condition of the milk market and particularly so in view of the fact that few of the dams on the lower side of the pedigrees had official records of production.

WE CAN ALL HELP TO MAKE THIS

Georgetown's Year in Hockey

EVERYONE KNOWS that it costs money... a lot of money... to ice an Intermediate team capable of going on to the Ontario finals.

THIS YEAR the executive is making a pre-season appeal to every citizen to buy a share in the team by making a small contribution. You will be getting a letter soon in the mail, outlining the plan.

REMEMBER, it takes everyone's support to create a good hockey team. Don't leave it all to the executive.
