Speaker Tells of Farm Beautification

Members of Terra Cotta farmers club were given information about inexpensive ways to beautify their farm homes when a lecturer from the Gueph OAC horticulture department spoke at their Monday meeting.

John Weall used a pictorial presentation to show how shrubs which can be had for the taking in woods and perennial flowers can convert drab surroundings into beauty spots.

New officers were elected at the meeting, which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McKane. Wilfrid Leslie heads the men's executive with Donald Dolson vice president, Arthur McKane secretary and directors Owens MacDonald, Vern Thompson, Clarence Lyons and Campbell Sinclair. Officers of the ladies group are Mrs. Wilbert Cleave, president; Mrs. Clarence Anderson, vice president; Mrs. George Frazer, sec'y-treas., Mrs. Vern Thompson, supply secretary and Mrs. Alex Dolson, pianist.

Mrs. Jack McDonald presided at the ladies meeting that night, with Something I have Read making an interesting roll call. Keith Dolson introduced the guest speaker and Wilfrid Leslie presided at the joint meeting, with Mrs. R. S. Leslie thanking those who took part in the program.
