Churchill tells...

WHY THE COLD WAR!

The Greatest Story
On The World Today

This sixth and final volume of the Churchill memoirs, to be published exclusively in this area by The Telegram, is regarded as by far the most important and most interesting of Sir Winston's works.

It unlocks the confidential files of history, brings into focus the manoeuvres of world powers and their leaders, steams open the envelopes containing the letters of Roosevelt, Stalin and the author.

LIMEHOUSE

PRESENTATION FOR MR. AND MRS. BOB BROWN

A very pleasant evening was spent in Limehouse Memorial Hall a week ago when newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brown were honored guests.

Mr. Frank Brown was the chairman for a short programme including humorous readings by Mrs. Smethurst, piano solos by Ruth McBride and Neil Benton, a sing-song with Mrs. Roughley at the piano and recitations by W. Mitchell. Mr. Frank Brown called the young couple to the platform and Mrs. Jack Lawson read an address, whereupon they were presented with a modern living room chair, a tri-light lamp and a large mirror. Bob made a very fitting reply, thanking everyone for their thoughtfulness and generosity and invited them to visit him and his bride.

Lunch was served and Mr. and Mrs. E. Karm played for a few dances to finish the happy occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Crook visited her parents at Rouge Hill over the week-end.

Mrs. Newton is in Private Patents Pavilion, Toronto, for a minor operation. We hope that she will make a satisfactory and speedy recovery.

A few local folks have been giving the hall a cleaning and waxing.

William Briggs is wearing a wrist cast — the result of a fall while at school.

Miss Ivens spent a couple of days in Brantford last week where she attended the funeral of her brother-in-law, Mr. Wm. Grieg.

Pic Calvin and Mrs. Van Zant of Port Credit visited the Karns on Sunday.

Mrs. S. Lawr was hostess for a Ronald party when Mr. Niggins demonstrated Tupperware on Monday evening. About twenty-five ladies attended.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kirkpatrick and children visited in Drayton on Sunday.

The WMS met at the home of Mrs. Mitchell on Thursday evening. Mrs. H. Norton reading Scripture and Mrs. Smethurst the prayer. Mrs. Roughley played "The Valiant Heart," Mrs. H. Norton read "In Flanders Fields" in memory of those who gave their lives in two wars, and Mrs. Smethurst and Mrs. A. Benton each read an article of interest. Text word used was "eat". The secretary was advised to send a card to members recently bereaved. A social hour followed the meeting.
