Two Hundred Attend Fire Hall Opening

Over two hundred people took advantage of the opportunity to see the new fire hall when members of the fire department held "open house" last Wednesday and Thursday.

The visitors were shown through the handsome new public building which contains a meeting room, kitchen and lounge, as well as the large fire hall proper. Firemen had spent hours shining the brass on the two engines, and all equipment was in tiptop shape for those inspecting it. Coffee and cookies were served to the visitors.

Progressive Euchre at Cheltenham Farm Club

Mr. and Mrs. David McDonald and their son Arthur gave their home for the November meeting of the Cheltenham Farmers Club and entertained over sixty members and friends on Tuesday evening, November 17th.

The men held a business meeting and the ladies provided a program during this hour which was presided over by Mrs. Norman Hutchinson. The program opened with the singing of the Maple Leaf Forever followed by the Creed. In answer to Roll Call it was Sing, Say, Play or Pay and three brought forth entertainment for all. Mrs. Gordon Cation gave an amusing story on Evolution, the discussion between two monkeys perched in a coconut tree, on where man descended from. A vocal solo "Helping Mother" was nicely sung by Miss Carolyn Wilkinson when Mrs. W. H. Wilkinson accompanied on the piano. Mrs. Gordon Thornton was called on for a reading and she chose one depicting a mother's preparation and problems in dressing a small family for a shopping trip to town called "Sequel to Lou's Town Shopping Woes." After the business part of the program Mrs. Norman Hutchinson closed with thanks to the participants and to the hostess.

The playing of progressive euchre brought the entertainment for the evening to a close. The prize winners were Mrs. Gordon Campbell and Mr. Ralph Tuenima first; Mrs. W. H. Wilkinson and Mrs. David Andrews second; and Mr. George Wilkinson and Mrs. J. J. Campbell won the carrying prizes. The hostess assisted by Mrs. Hugh McDonald, Mrs. George Wilkinson, Mrs. Duncan McDonald, Mrs. Alex McLeod, and Miss Carolyn Wilkinson served at the lunch hour. The December Christmas party is to be held at a community hall for all members and friends on December 8th.

THEATRE PARTY

The Home & School Association had excellent results from sale of tickets for their theatre party which added over $100 to their funds.

Legion Notes

Don't forget the regular monthly meeting of the Branch, to be held tomorrow (Thursday) night in the Legion auditorium, at 8:00 p.m. Try and be present as this will be the last meeting before Christmas and a lot of business is to be taken up.

Those who volunteered for the Saturday hockey are urgently requested to be on hand Saturday at 8:30 a.m. to line up teams and to help get organized for the afternoon's hockey beginning. All men are urged to be on hand. And all kid hockey players are asked to be at the Arena at 8:30 to line up the various teams.

In this column this week we reprint a picture of one of our former members, Will Hillis, taking part in a Legion golf tournament last year.

And what'dyknow, he's inveigled his eldest son Paul into totin' those great big heavy clubs for him! We hope you charged him plenty, Paul! Wilf was down east (back in God's country, we should say) a few weeks ago, attending a manager's insurance course in Toronto. Still looks fit and rarin' to go, but we surmise occasionally he misses the Branch way up there at the head of the lakes. Incidentally, this picture was sent to us courtesy of the Branch monthly booklet, which is a good sized booklet published to cover the various activities of their 1,000-odd members.

Still the burning question round the club room: Who stole Martin's spuds? Anyone knowing what happened to that entire garden full of beautiful Irish Cobblers please contact Bob (I'm from the South) Martin. And if you haven't put your children on the Christmas Tree list, do so immediately, as time's a wastin'. Leave the names on the blackboard or contact treasurer Bill Rooney.

Sorry to say Charlie Day is on the injured list. A week ago Sunday while helping prepare for the Imperial convention at the Legion Hall, Charlie slipped on the newly-waxed floor and went down break-

SERVE CANADA AND YOURSELF IN THE ARMY

Canadian troops have been praised as second to none in Europe and Korea. There's plenty to see and do, when you serve in the Army.

Soldiers of the sky — Canada's finest! These men — and you have to be good to be a Paratrooper — are trained to strike hard and fast.

Canada is huge. Our soldiers train for many climate conditions. The Arctic is one of the most important of these.

The Army uses the most modern equipment available. More men, to use and instruct others in these weapons, are needed immediately.

The Army finds out what you can do. Then, where possible, trains you to do it better, and you'll be a better man for it.
