ST. GEORGE'S S.S. PRESENTS AWARDS

On Advent Sunday at the close of the regular St. George's Sunday School session, attendance award pins were given to pupils, who attended fifty Sundays out of fifty two, for the year ending September 6th. Superintendent Harvey Dewhurst was in charge and the following received awards:

Second Year: (Bronze Pin) — Lynda Cuthbert, Janice Mino, Maureen Smith, Janice Chaplin, Gail Slijger.

Third Year (Silver Plate pin) — Dianna Armstrong, Lyn Ritchie, Ann Lorraine Noble, Pat Sargent.

Fourth Year (Gold Plate)—Robert Armstrong.

Fifth Year (Silver Plate and Enamel) — Brenda Dawson, Arthur Patton, Gordon Spence.

Sixth Year (Gold Plate and Enamel) — Lynda Mino, Margaret Eason, Karen Norton, Lillian Shepherd, Paul Armstrong, Michael Armstrong.

Seventh Year (Sterling Silver and Enamel) — Marilyn Patton, Jill Kentner, Sandra Fox, Dianne Harrison, Danny Martin, Fred Harrison.

Mr. Dewhurst congratulated the pupils on their fine record, and asked them to keep up the good work. He also acknowledged with very sincere thanks, the gift of a set of coloured hymn slides "Away in a Manger" given to the Sunday School by a devoted member of the teaching staff. Total attendance for the day was 143. Barbara Finlay and Harvey Dewhurst, Jr. presented their birthday offerings.

FIRE DAMAGE $20,000
 A $20,000 fire destroyed the barn of Kirby Crank, north of Brampton on Sunday. Three calves and 18 pigs perished in the blaze.

TWO FOR MAYOR. IN ACTON, MILTON

Milton and Acton duplicated their nomination meetings when two qualified for mayor and only five for council necessitating second nominations.

Reeve C. R. Anderson and C. H. Heslop are running for mayor in Milton, the office being vacated by Frank Thompson. Former mayor Ted Tyler is one of two Acton candidates, where the office has been vacated by Dr. Frank Oakes.

Dr. Carl Martin is the new reeve of Milton.

A BIRD'S NEST that is fireproof, vermin proof, washes easily with the rain, dries quickly and won't shrink was built by an enterprising oriole at Oshawa. The nest is actually pure glass since the oriole wove it with insulating "wool" from the Fiberglas plant in Oshawa. The nest was discovered near the plant by John Debroshinsky, a pupil at the South Simcoe school.
