

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rice
Mark 30th Anniversary
 Celebrating their 30th wedding anniversary on Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rice entertained about sixty neighbours and other friends at their home.
 During the evening, George Leave acting as chairman called on Warden George Leslie, who spoke briefly of his long acquaintance with Mr. Rice who has been in this community for many years. On behalf of those present he welcomed Mrs. Rice, who came out from Yugoslavia several months ago. They were presented with an upholstered chair.
 Others called to speak briefly were Norman Devereaux, Charlie Rice and Fred Chapman. Mr. and Mrs. Rice also received lovely gifts from relatives and friends from Stoney Creek, Sudbury, and from Cooksville. Supper was served later in the evening.

 The couple will soon be moving to the France farm on the 5th line which Mr. Rice owns jointly with Ben McEarg. The present tenant, August Spitzer is moving to Georgetown where he has purchased a house in the Sunbeam Heights subdivision.

 He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson, Normandy Blvd.

Raiders Topple Oaks To Win First Game

Snapping out of the doldrums, Georgetown Raiders came through with a striking win, their first in five starts, when they toppled Oakville on the latter's home ice on Friday.
 Playing against a supposedly superior team and with only ten men in uniform for part of the game, the Raiders showed what practice and teamwork can do with the odds against them. They played a defensive game, waiting for the breaks and then clicking through with a power play at the right time. Fred Lever did a stellar job in net, holding Oakville to two goals while his teammates rapped in three to take the win. Jack Shropshire, who wore the Raiders' uniform a few seasons back is now an OHA official and handled the game.
 Bill Hewitt, Harv Chappel and Ron Dixon got credit for the Georgetown goals. Rene Martin, Leigh Bradbury, George Grady and Jerry Inglis shared defence duties. Chappel teamed with Maxie Bradbury and Terry Brush on one line, while Hewitt, Blake Inglis and Ron Dixon made up the other.
 Whether the win was deserved will be proven this Friday when Oakville visits the local arena for a return match.

LORNE SCOTS INSPECTED
 The Lorne Scots Regiment was complimented on their good showing and high turn-out when Brigadier Purvis, new Central Area commander, inspected the regiment in Brampton on Sunday. The brass band looked smart in their new red uniforms.
