TERRA COTTA

QUILTING FOR MEMBERS THIMBLE CLUB MEETING

Ladies of the Thimble Club spent the afternoon quilting at their meeting in Terra Cotta Hall on Thursday. Miss L. Laughton was hostess and Mrs. Eves was in the

FARM CLUB ENTERTAINS YEAR'S GUEST SPEAKERS

Gratitude of Terra Cotta Farmers Club to guest speakers and entertainers during the monthly meetings was expressed by inviting them to the annual dinner in Snelgrove Hall on Friday.

Over 100 people attended the event which was convened by Mrs. Lloyd Crichton and Mrs. Jack McDonald. The dinner committee was composed of Mrs. Herb Dolson, Mrs. Clarence Anderson, Mrs. Alex Dolson and Mrs. Crichton.

Club president Wilfrid Leslie was chairman and a toast to the club was proposed by Arthur McKane and responded to by Mrs. Wilbert Cleave. Mrs. Cecil Williamson and her sister, Mrs. Davidson of Brampton entertained with vocal duets and led in a sing-song.

After dinner, progressive euchre was played. High score winners were Mrs. Art McKane, Jack McDonald, Mrs. Campbell Sinclair and R. E. Prouse, Brampton. Mr. and Mrs. George Frazer won travelling prizes and Mrs. Wilfrid Leslie and Fred Lyons novelty prizes. The younger members at the party played crokinole.

chair in the president's absence. Mrs. Ruth McCrea and Mrs. Edna Icam assisted Miss Laughton in serving lunch.

Everyone enjoyed the euchre party in the Hall on Friday and it was so successful that another is planned this coming Friday. Mrs. A. Zilio and Mrs. Edna Icam had high score prizes, with Mrs. S. Schleicher and Jack Stoddart winning seconds. Mrs. Zilio and Mr. Stoddart also won prizes for most lone hands, while Mrs. Starret Leslie and Mrs. J. Inglis won "freezeout" prizes. Door prize, a Kings Cleaner voucher, went to Charles Sheppard.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elwood attended the funeral of her brother-in-law, Matthew Mackie in Toronto on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Icam and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McBride visited on Sunday at Tullamore with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stokes.

Sunday visitors in the village included Mr. and Mrs. Art Rhodes and Wayne, Toronto and Miss Neretta Zilio, Guelph, with the Zillos, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Miller of Newtonbrook, with Mrs. S. Schleicher. Mrs. Mabel Murray and son Bill of Toronto were visitors yesterday with Mrs. Schleicher.
