MISS JANET YOUNG DIES AT HOME HERE

We wish to extend the sincere sympathy of the community to Miss Maud Young and Mrs. D. Moran in the loss of their sister, Janet Young who passed away Tuesday at her home here.

The Sunday School concert and pot luck supper was held in the hall Friday night. Over one hundred adults and children sat down to a bountiful supper at brightly decorated tables. Mr. Norman Russ was chairman for an enjoyable program with numbers from each class in the Sunday School. He also extended a cordial invitation to all to attend the Christmas services. Santa Claus appeared after a few anxious moments and gave candy and gifts to the children.

The December meeting of the W.A. was held at the home of the president Mrs. L. Marshall. The worship service was in charge of Mrs. G. Matthews. During the business period it was decided to send donations to the Sick Children's Hospital and the TB Fund. A special collection has been taken at each meeting and this money is to be used to make a life member. A program committee was appointed to prepare programmes for the coming year. In answer to the roll call several humorous poems and other inspiring thoughts were read which should help us to think of the real meaning of Christmas rather than the commercial side. Several guests were present and all enjoyed an exchange of Christmas gifts. The report of the nominating committee was given by Mrs. J. Kirkwood and the following officers were elected for 1954:

President — Mrs. L. Marshall
1st vice pres. — Mrs. E. Perryman
Rec. Secty. — Mrs. A. Starret
Assistant — Mrs. G. Matthews
Treasurer — Mrs. F. W. Shortill
Organist — Mrs. R. McEnery
Charity Fund Treasurer — Mrs. F. Smith
Card Committee — Mrs. A. Mitchell and Mrs. J. Snow.
Manse Committee — Mrs. D. McLean and Mrs. J. Kirkwood.
The hostess and Mrs. Smith served a delicious lunch to close a pleasant afternoon.

Congratulations -

to the successful candidates. I don't suppose they ever sold dog tags in town.

Thanks -

to the few who cast their ballots in favour of me.

MEMORIALS

BLAIR — In loving memory of a dear son and brother, Pte. Reginald R. Blair, 16196, PPCLI, killed in action in Italy, December 20th, 1944.

He went away so bravely,
His head held very high;
His footsteps never faltered
As he waved his last goodbye.
And on the field of battle,
He proudly took his place;
He fought and died for Canada
And the honour of his race.
— Sadly missed by Mum, Dad, Sisters and Brother.

BLAIR — In loving memory of my dear dad, Pte. Reginald R. Blair, 16196, PPCLI, killed in action in Italy, Dec. 20th, 1944.

I am nearly eleven years old,
O Dad why did you have to go?
Some day I hope to meet you,
That day I know not when,
But I shall meet you in a better land,
And never part again.
Remembered always, son James, England.

HILL — In loving memory of a dear son, James Robert Hill who died on December 18th, 1952.
There is a mother and dad who miss you sadly,
And find the time long since you went,
And we think of you daily and hourly,
But try to be brave and content.
But the tears that we shed are in silence
And we breathe a sigh of regret,
For you were ours, and we remember.
Though all the world forget.
— Mom and Dad

HILL — In loving memory of a dear son, Robert Hill who died on December 18th, 1952.
Just when your life was brightest,
Just when your years were best;
You were called from this world of sorrow,
To a home of eternal rest.
— Bill and Loretta.

HILL — In loving memory of James Robert Hill who died on December 18th, 1952.
Gone, dear James, gone forever,
How we miss your smiling face,
But you left us to remember,
None on earth can take your place.
A happy home we once enjoyed,
How sweet the memory still,
But death has left a loneliness,
The world can never fill.
— Ab and Doug.

HILL — In memory of James (Ish) Hill, who died Dec. 18th, 1953.
Remembrance is a golden chain
Death tries to break but all in vain;
To have, to love, and then to part
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never,
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.
— Remembered by the Yellow Jackets Motorcycle Club.

HILL — In loving memory of a dear brother, James Robert Hill, who died December 18th, 1952.
You're not forgotten, brother,
Dear,
Nor ever shall you be;
As long as life and memory last
We shall remember thee.
— Remembered always by Ruby, John and family.

HILL — In loving memory of Uncle James Hill, who died December 18th, 1952.

CAR INTERIOR IS DAMAGED BY FIRE

Damage to the interior of a car owned by Norman Smith was caused by a fire which occurred in the garage at Mr. Smith's home on Emery Street last Friday.

The fire was discovered about 5 p.m. and was soon extinguished when the fire brigade was called. There was no damage to the garage.

A second call to the brigade came Sunday morning when a space heater at the home of Joe Frank, Victoria Ave., acted up. No fire resulted and there was no damage reported.
