POLICE ON WATCH FOR TREE THIEVES

Provincial police in Esqueving are on the alert for Christmas tree thieves and are warning that stiff penalties will be enforced against any culprits.

Some local people found helping themselves to trees on farmers woodlots have been given warnings, it is reported, and any further infraction of the law will bring a court appearance.

Forewarned is forearmed, and anyone contemplating choosing his own tree might be advised to do it on one of the commercial lots around town.

MACKENZIE NEWS

It's beginning to look like Christmas.

Perhaps we don't look like a gift shop but we can help Santa out with suggestions too. A ton of coal is always a good gift for the whole family. A new bathroom cabinet with plate mirror at $12.50 makes a good present for a husband and wife. A new counter top for her kitchen cupboards would please the housewife. There are many products that would please the week-end builder.

See you on your way to Church on Sunday.
