The King of Greece Says Thanks

While winsome Queen Frederika looks on smilingly, King Paul of the Hellenes expresses thanks to U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld who has just presented him with a check for Greek Earthquake Relief. The check represents contributions of U.N. staff members. The occasion was the royal couple's visit to U.N. Headquarters during their goodwill tour of the USA. In the background stands Greece's Permanent Representative to U.N., Alexis Kyrou.

Wrigglesworth Concert Gets a "Full House"

A well planned Christmas concert was presented in Wrigglesworth School auditorium last Wednesday night, with most of the school pupils taking part. Christmas songs and comedy contrasted with an excellent pageant of the Nativity which was directed by Miss Marion Scarlett of the school staff. Music teacher Kenneth R. Harrison played piano accompaniment for the show and for Christmas carol singing for parents and friends who more than filled the auditorium.

The Nativity story which featured the senior pupils was read by Diane Hill and Lois Niven. On stage was a choir and the various characters including the Holy Family, shepherds, wise men and, angels. A modern touch was added when girls and boys representing cubs, CGIT, brownies, explorers, kindness and love, and three little tots saying their bedtime prayers, acknowledged the baby Jesus. Sandra Lloyd, Peter Forgrave and Judy Richardson took singing parts in the pageant.

The program opened with Christmas songs by kindergarten and Grade 1 pupils, with Michael Hall as Santa arriving with his reindeer at the close. Santa's Workshop had a stageful of toys performing to offstage music. "Four Old Maids" in costume provided merriment, Brian Lewis, Bert Henderson, Murray Ross and Jim Fiddler.

A scene from Alice in Wonderland featured Sandra Lloyd as Alice, Kent Riddall, the March Hare, Stewart Bottomley, the Mad Hatter, and Linda Korzack, the Door-mouse.

Legendary Carols were sung by a choir and narrated by Michael Stewardson. Peter Forgrave sang a solo part in this number.

Principal William Kinrade introduced the show and Ernest Forgrave led the audience in carol singing between acts.

Bermuda Honeymoon Follows Marriage

Grace United Church, Brampton, was decorated with palms and white chrysanthemums when Miss Helen Isabel Taylor and Russell King Cooper exchanged nuptial vows recently. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Alfred Emmerson Taylor of Moffat and the late Mr. Taylor. The groom is the son of Mrs. James Edward Cooper, Brampton and the late Mr. Cooper.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. N. Davidson. The wedding music was played by Miss J. Milner and Mrs. Jean Lumis of Toronto sang "Where'er You Walk" during the signing of the register.

Ivan Emmerson Taylor gave his sister in marriage. The bride was gowned in white pebble satin and French lace. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a stand-up Queen Anne collar of French lace over satin, sprinkled with iridescent sequins and was offset with matching lace and ended in a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil was caught to a matching crown touched with pearls, and she carried white and mauve orchids.

Mrs. George Mooney, sister of the bride, was matron of honour wearing teal blue with matching headdress and mittens. She carried a cascade of yellow roses.

Barry J. Cooper of Brampton brother of the groom, was best man with John Cooper and Edward Cooper, brothers of the groom acting as ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in Yellow Briar Inn which was decorated for the occasion with pink roses.

For a wedding trip by plane to Bermuda, the bride donned a light blue suit with brown accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Coper plan to reside in Brampton, where Mr. Cooper is a photographer and district representative of the Toronto Telegram.
