STEWARTTOWN

SCHOOL CONCERT IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

One of the most enjoyable concerts was held in the township hall Friday evening by the pupils of Stewarttown School, Grades 1 to 5. From the smallest tot to the oldest, everyone knew his part. The program was a long one yet everyone was sorry when it came to an end. Rhythm hand, drills, plays, recitations were all a success. Mrs. Woods is to be congratulated on her work, and Mrs. Douglas Lawson, whose accompaniment added to the pleasure of the singing. During the evening Miss Dorothy Stone presented the Esquesing W.I. award of a wallet to Peter Canham. This award was made to the student who passed with highest marks of the Stewarttown pupils in the entrance class. The children were singing the song "Here Comes Santa Claus" and he really turned up. and distributed the gifts from a well laden tree . . . also oranges and candy bags.

The Christmas communion service at St. Johns Church will be held on Christmas Eve, Thursday evening at 11.30 p.m.

Sunday morning at St. John's Church the Sunday School children received a gift parcel from the Christmas tree at the carol service.

A very Happy Christmas to the editor and the staff at the Herald Office and to all our readers.

RAIDERS DROP THREE LAST WEEK'S GAMES

Georgetown Raiders are hoping to snap out of a losing streak when they meet the Co-Ops in Milton next Monday.

After winning and tying their games with Oakville, Raiders had tough luck last week, and dropped two games to Collingwood and another in Durham last night. The team was shorthanded in all three games, and coach Leigh Bradbury hopes to have his full lineup in action again Monday.
