NORVAL

Tells Institute Ladies About Florida Trip

Mrs. Walter Fidler and Mrs. Oliver Hunter told of their trip to Florida, at a meeting of Norval Women's Institute on Thursday.

In their informal talk, the ladies recounted highlights of their trip. One thing which impressed them was the contrast of extreme poverty noticed driving through Georgia and the luxury of such Florida vacation spots as Miami Beach.

Mrs. Nelson Robinson, of whose home the meeting was held, gave a demonstration of rug making. Initial planning was done for the exhibit which the Institute will have at Georgetown Fair next fall.

The ladies made donations to Halton Music Festival and to the folk school which was held last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mac Alexander.

We watched you day by day,
We cried and prayed for your dear life,
Would not be taken away,
